EX-JUDGE LANDIS TESTIFIES AT DAUGHERTY INVESTIGATION

Tells of Sentence Imposed Upon Philip Grossman, Chicago Ex-Saloon Keeper—Could Never Understand How Grossman Got Executive Clemency

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, former federal judge at Chicago, and now the czar of baseball, was called today in the acute Daugherty investigation to tell of the sentences imposed upon and the pardon later granted to Philip Grossman, a Chicago ex-saloon keeper, charged with prohibition law violation.

Grossman's conviction, Judge Landis said, resulted from the testimony of six witnesses who said he sold whiskey. The court added a charge of contempt of court. Previous witnesses have testified that although a sentence to the house of correction was imposed, Grossman was able to forestall actual incarceration and finally was given executive clemency by President Coolidge.

The committee was confused as to (Continued to page 22)

Albert Williams on Trial Today at Cambridge For Alleged Murder of Lowell Man

Jury Was Empaneled Late Yesterday Afternoon and Government's Case Outlined by Asst. District Attorney Bushnell—Wife of Murdered Man Swoons on Witness Stand When Shown Blood-Stained Hammer Which Government Claims Was Used by Williams as Instrument of Death—Medical Examiner Alling First Witness Called Today

(Special to The Sun.)

CAMBRIDGE, May 2.—Albert Williams, alias Albert Brown, went on trial here today for the murder of Philip Grossman, a Chicago ex-saloon keeper, on January 7. The government has not pressed a first degree indictment and will prosecute on a charge of murder in the second degree.

A jury was empaneled at 4 p. m. yesterday and the government's case was outlined by Asst. District Attorney Robert T. Bushnell.

Williams was found by Lowell police after the murder hiding in the cellar of Terjil's house under a pile of burlap bags. He is said to have told police that a third man, George Roney, now held as a material witness, struck the blows that killed Terjil.

Swoons on Witness Stand

While testifying to what occurred at her Tyler st. home on the day of the murder, Mrs. Terjil, wife of the murdered man, swooned when shown the hammer her husband carried to Williams' kitchen and which the government claimed was one of the death weapons used by Williams. It was blood-stained.

"Take it away, it makes me faint," she cried. After a rest she was able to go on with her testimony.

Just previous to that, Mrs. Terjil had testified that on the day of the murder, Williams, a lodger in the house, had come into her kitchen at about 12 o'clock noon and asked her

John M. Spillane of 36 Putnam avenue has been appointed a permanent fireman in the local department to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Romuald C. Bissailon, who died as a result of injuries received answering an alarm over a month ago.

Spillane was first on the civil service eligible list and his appointment has already been certified by the civil service commission. He is now on duty in the Central fire station.

Chief Saunders said today that he would not appoint men for the new Oakland fire station until such time as the station is ready for occupancy.

NORTH BILLERICA BOY PLACES IRON BAR ON R. R. TRACK

Watchman for Chemical Company Prevents Wreck of Passenger Train by Removing Obstruction—Boy Arraigned at Juvenile Session of District Court Today

The details of what might have proved a disaster, with a possible loss of human life, were revealed at the juvenile session of district court this morning when a 15-year-old North Billerica high school youth was arraigned.

The incident occurred near the railroad station in North Billerica, April 24, at 7 o'clock in the evening, just 12 minutes before Train 3329, carrying a number of Lowell passengers, sped past the station and proceeded safely on its way northward, its personnel unaware of the narrow escape.

At 7 o'clock that evening, John Dunn, a watchman in the employ of the New England Chemical Co., located a short distance from the railroad tracks, noticed a youthful individual placing an iron crowbar across the north-bound track leading to Lowell. According to railroad men, the bar was of sufficient proportions to derail the engine and cause considerable damage.

Knowing that the 8:14 train out of Boston was due to pass the spot at 7:12, Mr. Dunn lost no time in removing the obstruction. It was 7 o'clock then, and as dusk was settling over the neighborhood, Mr. Dunn's quick action is regarded as responsible for averting a wreck. Howard C. Simonds, a number of Lowell passengers, special officer for the Boston & Maine railroad, was loud in his praise of the watchman this morning.

When arraigned in court, the juvenile pleaded guilty to the charge preferred against him and was committed in Jail for two weeks. He said he was "dazed" on the night in question, and did not realize what he was doing.

JUDGE RICHARD W. IRWIN SAYS "GOOD BYE" TO JURORS HERE

Sound Logic and Good Advice in Farewell Address Spoken at Superior Court—Judge Goes From Here to Springfield—Successful Session Here

Judge Richard W. Irwin of Northampton, who has been sitting in the superior court in session at the Gerhart street courthouse for the past four weeks, announced before adjourning court this forenoon that he has received instructions to open court in Springfield next Monday and that another justice would complete the local sessions.

Gathering the jurors together in the enclosure, he gave the following farewell address: "I was assigned to this court for eight weeks," he said, "but conditions are such that I am needed in another section of the state before this court is completed. Another judge will come to take my place and I hope that the friendly relations which have existed between you and me will continue between you and the coming justice.

"Judges come and judges go, juries come and juries go, but the court goes on. No two judges and no two juries have the same personality, but after all we are much alike, our emotions are much the same, and the average is satisfactory to all. For 100 years there

FIRE PROTECTIVE LAWS NORTH POMONA GRANGE

Chief Saunders Discusses "Past Masters' Day" Draws Big Crowd to Odd Fellows' Hall

When the proposed new building code for the city of Lowell, now in process of completion, is formally approved by the municipal government, if acceptable, many present-day fire hazards will be largely eliminated, in the opinion of chamber of commerce members.

The building code committee of the chamber has about completed an entire revision of the present city building code. The new draft is expected to be ready soon after rearrangement and indexing. A recent "Bulletin" announced that it is the intention of the committee to have the new building code so indexed that a person who desires to build a single family house can quickly turn to these sections which relate to this type of a building. The same will be true of a garage, a two-family house, an apartment house or a factory.

While there have been no radical changes from the present building code, the chamber "Bulletin" reports, considerable additional material has been added to bring the code in line with new kinds and types of work and buildings, which were not in use at the time of the present code.

BOARD WILL ORDER HEARING ON THE OAKLANDS SEWER

Confers With Special Council Committee on Project—Stevens Street Widening Meets Opposition and is Tabled as is Plan for Macadam There

Members of the public service board, said he doubts if the board has jurisdiction. Mr. Hogan replied to Mr. Murphy saying he requested only that the public service board so recommend to the city council which has the power.

Asked why he did not petition the council, Mr. Hogan replied that he felt that should be done, that body would refer the matter to the public service board for recommendation.

To save time he took the matter up with the board first, he said. Chairman Murphy said the board would take the matter under advisement. No others desired to speak. In executive session the board voted to refer same to the city council without comment.

John H. Hart spoke in favor of a power extension in Waterford street from Elm avenue to Oxford street.

All other matters were recorded as pending the petition.

"I guess I'm ticked," said Mr. Hart, after all those against the plan were heard.

"I'm afraid you are," replied Chairman Murphy, in closing this hearing.

Mr. Hart was given leave to withdraw.

Stevens street and Butman road particularly were viewed by the board.

The city engineer in answer to the request of the city council for a report on Stevens street has recommended a ten-foot widening from Parker street to Chelmsford street. The street is now forty feet wide and part of the thoroughfare has curbs on the center. Under the city engineer's plan the street would be widened five feet on each side.

The view of the street yesterday made it appear to the board that should they desire to put through such a project there would be but little actual hardship on abutters. In several instances it would make the houses quite close to the sidewalk and three or possibly four houses would have to sacrifice front porches or provide for side entrances thereto.

One store, a small one-story structure, and one ornamental stone wall would of necessity have to be moved. James Stuart Murphy spoke for 60 abutters whom he recorded as against the project.

Former Mayor James B. Casey, speaking for Rev. Fr. Galligan of St. Margaret's church, said that the church pastor, himself unable to attend, desired to be recorded as not against the project. Speaking "as a private citizen," Mr. Casey said: "I cannot agree with Mr. Murphy that the street does not need to be widened. I feel that it needs widening badly. It would be wrong for the city to improve this street without widening."

To say widening is not necessary is absurd."

James McCann, 657 Stevens street, spoke in favor of widening and said, "They had rather the street not be repaired than that it be widened?"

Mr. Murphy replied that the residents are practically unanimous in the desire to have the street improved insofar as the road surface is concerned, but are against any widening such as is contemplated.

City Engineer Kearney said eight of sixty-three houses on the street street, he said, and will be heavier if the way is widened. Tremendous pointed would therefore increase chances of

SEES REPEAL OF DRY AMENDMENT

Dr. Butler to Carry His Fight on Prohibition Into G.O.P. National Convention

Declares 18th Amendment is Failure and Will Be Repealed Inside of Five Years

NEW YORK, May 2.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, probably will carry his fight on prohibition into the republican national convention to which he is a district delegate. While he would make no direct statement yesterday, he announced that he was "ready to go to the bat" on the question and declared that "politicians are in terror whenever the subject comes up but no matter what is in the platform, prohibition will be the first thing in the mind of the public."

"The 18th amendment will be repealed inside of five years," Dr. Butler said. "It is a failure. Its advocates say New York is one of the wet spots. Fanatics always centre their attacks on New York."

"But I have traveled about the country and say knowingly that New York is the driest place in the United States considering its size. In all the hotels under the New York Hotelmen's association not one drop of liquor is sold. The rural communities are the wettest of all."

Dr. Butler asked the churches of America yesterday to join him in branding the 18th amendment as a failure, in a letter denouncing an invitation to debate the prohibition issue at the general Methodist conference at Springfield, Mass., May 22.

TODAY'S CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

Stombleau was arrested for breaking and entering and larceny in Waltham more than a month ago and is now awaiting trial in superior court on those charges.

There were but three other cases in court this morning. Stanislaus Jablonowicz pleaded guilty to illegally keeping liquor and paid a fine of $100. Anthony Kennedy, drunkenness, was continued until May 9.

New voters are being registered daily at the office during the regular business hours. Ward six particularly is being swelled by new voters it is noted although it is too early for any great numbers.

FINAL ACTION ON BONUS BILL

Senate Adopts Conference Report—Up in House Today for Final Approval

Measure Expected to Be Ready for Despatch to White House by Monday

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The soldier bonus bill was before the house today for final approval with some minor changes made by the senate and agreed to by house conferees to be ratified. Almost without discussion yesterday the senate ratified the report of its conferees and, with similar action by the house, and the completion of some administrative details, the measure will be ready to despatch to the White House, probably tomorrow or Monday.

President Coolidge in his message to congress declared opposition to a bonus. Although his attitude on this particular bill has not been made known, advocates of the measure in both the house and senate insist it can be passed over a veto by the necessary two-thirds majority. The bill was approved by the house by a vote of 255 to 64 and by the senate, 67 to 17.

The bill provides for cash payments to veterans not entitled to more than $50 in adjusted service compensation and 20-year endowment insurance policies to others. The bill passed last session and voted by President Harding had the same cash provision but instead of the insurance policies it would have given options of deferred payments certificates, vocational training or farm and home aid.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED AT POSTOFFICE

Postmaster Xaxier A. Dellela this morning announced the appointment of James A. Finnerty, stamp clerk at the main postoffice on Appleton street, to the position of clerk in charge of the night force to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Raymond Dutton to the superintendency of the new branch postal station in the Highlands.

Mr. Finnerty's vacated position in the stamp division will be filled by Arthur W. McLean, who lives at 1091 Gorham street.

Both postal clerks included in today's transfers receive promotions. Both have excellent records. Mr. Finnerty has been attached to the main postoffice employees staff since February, 1903. He was appointed a regular clerk in 1904. He is at present vice president of the State Association of Postoffice Clerks and an active worker in postal workers' affairs, mutual and social.

Mr. McLean is a war veteran with a splendid record, being a Lieutenant overseas. He was holding down a busy clerkship in 1917 when called to service. Upon his return, he started at the foot of the ladder once more, performing the special postal duties required of him until his appointment in 1921 as night clerk. His advancement to the position of stamp clerk is well deserved, his comrades say.

REAFFIRM FAITH IN VIRGIN BIRTH

Rev. H. P. Sloane Says Christian Church in One of Most Crucial Periods in History

Urges Methodists to Reaffirm Faith in Doctrines of Virgin Birth and Deity

SPRINGFIELD, May 2. The Christian church is in one of the most crucial periods of its history, and the Methodist church should therefore reaffirm its faith in the fundamental doctrines of the Virgin birth and the deity of Christ, the Rev. Harold P. Sloane of New Jersey delegation told the members of the Methodist Episcopal general conference at its session here today. His resolution was referred to the committee on the state of the church, his speech on the resolution having called forth pronounced applause.

In great headlines the belief in the Virgin birth and in Christ as the Lord is being questioned," said Dr. Sloane. "The Methodist church stands undivided for the principles and beliefs of common Christianity and a positive tremendous expression of faith will go far in helping the church at this juncture of its history."

The conference adopted a resolution asking congress to extend the prohibition law to the Philippine islands, proposed by Joshua E. Cottingham of Manila and voted support of the Methodist church and press in India in their effort to bring about prohibition there. "This body extends to India its hearty good wishes for complete success in the cause of sobriety," the resolution, proposed by Brenton T. Badley of North India, read in part.

The appointment of a special committee to consider a declaration on the world problem of war was voted on the motion of the Rev. Merton S. Rice of Detroit. The committee was to consist of one member for each area of the church and seven members at large appointed by the board of bishops.

It was announced that the committee of five which will report to congress the conference's stand in favor of the prohibition law and the Volstead enforcement act, had been approved. Bishops Nicholson of Chicago and Leonard of San Francisco are members of the committee; the appointment of which was voted yesterday after eager discussion.

The establishment of a morning watch to be held daily for prayers for divine guidance during the conference was voted on the resolution of Judge Herbert T. Ames of Pennsylvania. The appointment of a special committee to consider a change in the church constitution for the admission of laymen to the annual regional conferences was also decided. The confirmation of this change, which came before the last quadrennial conference is still in process of completion, it was stated.

COTTON MILL DIVIDEND CASUALTIES GROW

BOSTON, May 2.—The May dividend dates which in many instances represent the second quarter payments among textile mills, have brought an additional list of casualties in the shape of passed and reduced distributions for 1923. No better evidence is needed of the trying period through which the industry is passing.

The list below includes the more important cotton mills in Massachusetts which have passed, or reduced dividends, since the first of the year. It is characteristic of the breadth of the current depression that the table contains plants producing practically all kinds of cotton yarns, cloth and knitted products.

Mill	Dividend
Shaw-Mfg. Co.	Passed
Hamilton Mfg. Co.	Passed
Isaiah Mills	Passed
Granite Mills	Passed

Installed in the above plants, all in Massachusetts, are 1,876,628 spindles, or a little more than 10 per cent off the total spindleage of the state.

HENLE'S COLUMN

NEW YORK, May 2.—Roaming around Broadway for a week, I renewed my acquaintance with Gloria Swanson, the movie actress, who lives in an East 52nd street hotel, and who has been repeatedly rumored as having died. My faith in survival of the spirit is great, but I find it difficult to believe materialization has reached so fine a point. No, I did not pinch her, as many since have asked me, but I'm convinced she's alive nevertheless.

Saw a thrilling melodrama reminding me of the 10-20-30-cent days. It was "The Dust Heap," getting its name from a scene in the Yukon, "where the dust heap of humanity" is blown. Just as the villain is about to drag the "gal" away, lightning strikes the place.

Also saw "Cobra," a new drama in which a young shell makes a rendezvous with his partner's wife which results in her death, and then the question remains should the shell tell his partner? which he very wisely decides not to do.

Heard that Benny Leonard has started making a series of 12 moving pictures, which probably means the fighting public will not see Benny's lightweight title at stake this summer, though he may defend it.

Read Henry H. Curran's article in The Saturday Evening Post, urging exclusion of all immigrants or cutting the number to a very, very few, and the more I think of it, the more I'm convinced that Curran gets great enjoyment from his own voice.

Saw the world's greatest assemblage of theatrical stars at the annual Equity show at the Metropolitan Opera House. It is impossible to mention all of them by name as every single one of any prominence now playing in this city partook of the program. But can say that Eddie Cantor was easily the popular favorite. The group of English stars in "Charlotte's Rescue," including Beatrice Lillie, the comedienne, Gertrude Lawrence and Nelson Keys came second in amount of applause, with John Drew taking third honors. Noticed that several comedians didn't "get over" with their jokes the way they do in their regular shows and believed it was because they wrote the joke themselves. It takes more than a comedian to make a comedian; it also takes a good writer.

Noticed that one of the old-time penny-in-the-slot arcades slipped back on Sixth avenue near 40th street, and discovered they are as vulgar as always. These places feed on dull minds and remind one of the filthy travelling carnivals that may be found on the edge of small towns in summer time.

Read a very good biography of William Gibbs McAdoo, by Mary Synon, a volume which she calls "McAdoo's Robberies, Merrill and Learned" many things about the prospective presidential nominee, the most surprising being that he credits General Sherman's destructive march to the sea "with whatever character" he has developed, because Sherman's wild march played many hardships and privations upon the people near Marietta, Ga., where he was born in 1852, and McAdoo thinks that character is only developed through the stress of suffering and poverty.

Money Island long has been envious of Atlantic City's boardwalk and rolling chairs. But it need be no longer. When visitors come here this summer they will find a new boardwalk at the famous resort, and they also will find numerous rolling chairs in which to ride. Several hundred of them already are in operation, and with the coming of warmer weather and increased crowds there will be more.

Rheuma—The Only Safe and Quick-Acting Remedy for Rheumatism, Gout and Sciatica. Money Back if it Doesn't Satisfy

Thousands of sufferers have freed themselves from the bondage of rheumatism; rid themselves of the torturing pain; reduced the swollen joints, thrown away crutches and crutches, and from helpless beings became able to work and be of use to themselves and their families.

They took Rheuma, the modern enemy of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, arthritis, gout and chronic neuralgia. Don't be sceptical about Rheuma. You will know in a few hours after beginning the treatment that the potentious ure acid is leaving your system through the natural channels. You will feel better in a day; you will know you are going to be helped in less than a week.

Don't think because Rheuma is not expensive that it won't bring you back to health. There is no guess work about it. That's why Green's Drug Store and good druggists everywhere sell it with guarantee of money back if it does not give quick and blessed relief almost at once.—Adv.

Fire Protective Laws

the time of the adoption of the present code.

It is expected, Secretary-Manager Robinson, John Johnson, E. W. Douglas, George F. Wells said this morning, that E. W. Daly, Frank Dodge, Albert Bergeron, Fred Church, Jr., Fire Chief be ready for presentation to the city council at an early date.

The building code committee members are as follows:

John J. O'Connor, chairman; John W.

Robinson, John Johnson, E. W. Douglas, George F. Wells said this morning, that E. W. Daly, Frank Dodge, Albert

Edward Saunders, Perley Gilbert, Chas. B. Gannon, Arthur Spaulding, Frank Connors, George W. Stewart, Burton H. Wiggin, Ralph Tunels and Albert L. Gibbons.

Fire Chief Victor Chamber

Informal discussions of present and proposed new fire protective laws for the city of Lowell, followed an impromptu call by Fire Chief Saunders at Lowell chamber of commerce headquarters this morning. The chief chatted at length with Secretary-Manager Wells, giving some of his views on the present situation governing the physical condition of the city and fire-protective measures.

Chief Saunders had no prepared suggestions to make for publication and the visit at chamber headquarters took no semblance of formality, the discussion touching upon phases of the building situation and also the building of three-decker wooden apartment houses. Restrictions on building "three-deckers" today are very limited, fire department officials and business men of the city declare.

One of the objects of the present campaign is to eliminate many alleged fire hazards that endanger valuable properties and also human lives. The matter is being discussed more generally in municipal and civic circles than it ever has been before and many business men believe that this is the proper time to have the situation remedied in the best possible manner for the future safety of all Lowell.

NAVAL RESERVE LEASE NOT VALID

Asst. Sec. Finney Says Search Fails to Reveal Necessary Approval

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Turning its attention for the first time to naval reserve No. 2 in California, the senate oil committee was advised today by Assistant Secretary Finney of the interior department that a search of the records failed to show the necessary presidential approval of the lease of over 5000 acres in that reserve to the Honolulu Oil Co.

The lease was not valid, the witness said, unless approved by the president, because Secretary Fall had no authority of his own to make such a contract. All of naval reserve No. 2 had been leased by Fall except for 1250 acres, he said, and since Secretary Workman came into office, the remainder had been leased at the request of the navy department.

At the conclusion of Mr. Finney's testimony, the committee took a recess until May 8.

MAN REPORTED TO HAVE ENDED LIFE IS ALIVE

LEWISTON, Me., May 1.—Jesse Asseling of Auburn, supposed to have committed suicide in Chicago on Feb. 12 last, is alive and is now in a town near New Bedford, Mass., his mother said today. Mrs. Asseling, who lived in this city, said that her son had mailed her a photograph of himself last week.

A man who had registered as "Bill of New York" and left a note saying that he came from "somewhere in Maine" and belonged to "a very good family," was found shot to death in a Chicago hotel room. A brief dispatch carried by the Associated Press and printed in Maine papers led relatives of Asseling to communicate with the Chicago police, who forwarded a description of the suicide. A sister of Asseling's wife went to Chicago, identifying the body and arranged for burial. Asseling's mother refused to disclose his exact whereabouts but said she had no doubt that he was living.

PEACE DEMONSTRATION IN BOLSHEVIST RUSSIA

MOSCOW, May 1. (By the Associated Press.) Bolshevik Russia today departed from its usual custom of observing May day with spectacular parades of units from the red army and navy, combining its celebration to peaceful demonstrations at the tomb of Lenin.

The authorities having decided to allow two days to the celebration, tomorrow will be given over to parades of the communist boy scouts and children of the working classes, who will take the oath of allegiance to the revolutionary principles of Lenin's shrine.

DEMPSEY AND WILLS TO FIGHT SEPT. 6

NEW YORK, May 1 (By the Associated Press.)—Tex Rickard announced today he had matched Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills for a world's heavyweight championship fight at Bayl's Thirty Acres, Jersey City, on Sept. 6. So far as Wills is concerned, the match is contingent upon a victory over either Quintin Romero, Chilean heavyweight, or Emilio Spilla, Italian holder of the European heavyweight title, some time in June at the Jersey bowl, Rickard said.

KEY-WORKER ACTIVE IN "ACRE" DISTRICT

The police have issued a warning, especially applicable to "Acre" residents, of a key-worker operating in that neighborhood. During the present week, three or four entries to lodging houses in the vicinity of Fletcher street have been made, and clothing and valuables taken. Capt. Petrie, Lieut. Maher, Serg. McCoughrey and Inspector Walsh have been investigating the breaks, but their work has been hampered in view of the fact that there is no description of the responsible party or parties available.

ROGERS BILL PASSED

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The Rogers bill, providing for reorganization of the diplomatic and consular service, was passed today by the house and sent to the senate.

NO LOCAL INCREASE IN PRICE OF COAL

Despite the fact that operating and wholesale coal dealers have declared an advance of 10 cents in egg and nut coal and 15 cents extra for stove coal, the same advance to be made each month until September, the local coal dealers, it was stated today, will not increase their present rate. The May advance will be $16.50 on egg and broken sizes of coal, and $17 on stove and nut sizes, with 50 cents a ton discount for cash.

ANNUITY OF $500 FOR LOWELL WOMAN

She, they yesterday signed the bill granting to Mrs. Alice Hession, widow of Donald Hession, member of the Lowell fire department, killed while in the discharge of his duty, an annuity of $500. The bill was introduced in the legislature by Rep. Henry

HONDURAN PEACE CONFERENCE
SAN SALVADOR, May 1. (By the Associated Press.)—The Honduran peace conference called by the United States in an effort to put to an end the civil war in Honduras, has agreed upon the Vicente Tosta, as provisional president, pending the holding of new elections, says a dispatch from Amoyacu. The fighting which culminated in the capture of Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras, by the revolutionary forces lasted 12 hours, with many dead and wounded on both sides.

OTHER RESERVE BANKS TO REDUCE RATES

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Reduction of the rediscount rate by the New York Reserve bank yesterday from 4½ to 4 per cent, is expected at the treasury to be followed by similar action by the reserve banks at Boston and Philadelphia.

It developed today that the reduction by the New York bank with its subsequent approval by the reserve board, was a proposition originating entirely with the bank itself. Members of the reserve board, while expressing no opposition felt it would accomplish little change in the economic situation.

Secretary Mellon, among others, believes the reduction will do little to stimulate new business inasmuch as he regards the general money supply as adequate and the present rates easy.

BRITAIN WANTS TO PUT DAWES PLAN INTO FORCE

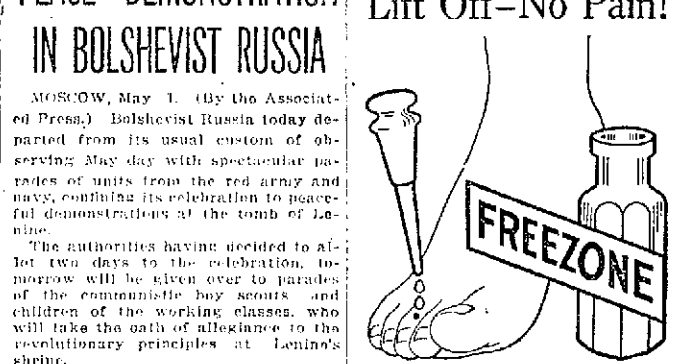

LONDON, May 1. (By the Associated Press.)—When Prime Minister MacDonald meets Premier Thounis and Paul Hymans of Belgium at Chequers tomorrow, the Belgian emissaries will be told that Great Britain desires to put the Dawes plan into effect by taking it out of the hands of the reparations commission and dealing directly with Germany in a new international conference.

POLITICAL PARTIES TO MEET IN NEBRASKA

OMAHA, Neb., May 1.—Three political parties will hold state conventions in Nebraska today, the democratic and progressive organizations meeting at Omaha, and the republicans at Lincoln. Selection of state central committee and presidential electors and the adoption of platforms and resolutions are scheduled in the democratic and republican meetings. Indorsement of party candidates nominated in the April 8 primaries, is expected.

Piles

Can't Be Cured From the Outside. External treatments seldom cure Piles. Nor do surgical operations. The cause is inside—bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby. The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through stagnant points. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.
J. S. Leonard, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Green's Drug Store, which will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.—Adv.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE TAKES CHANCE AS JAY WALKER IN CAPITAL

Cautious "Cal" Meandered Through Motor Traffic—
Movements on Political Chessboard as Seen by Special Writer for Sun

BY HARRY D. HUNT,
N.E.A. Service Writer
WASHINGTON, May 2.—Despite his sobriquet of "Cautious Cal," President
Coolidge is a Jay-walker.

And Jay-walkers, or so at least the traffic experts tell us, are anything but cautious.

Anyway, just as the departments were letting out the other evening and sidewalks were jammed with pedestrians and fluffers, Cal decided to shake the kinks out of his legs before dinner by a brief hike.

Instead of following the sidewalk,
as he emerged from the east gate of the White House grounds on Pennsylvania avenue, to the cross-walk where pedestrians are supposed to cross, Cal struck straight out from the curb for the other side.

Brakes squealed and horns honked
as drivers swerved or slowed up to avoid collision. But Cal, flanked right and left by a secret service man, held his course. At the middle of the street, he had to pause to let a stream of vehicles pass. At the first opening, however, he plunged in again and made
the other curb.

Which incident may or may not mean anything. At the time I witnessed it, however, it struck me that maybe Cal isn't so awfully cautious after all. At least that was one time
when he certainly "took a chance."

Phillips Less Cautious
Less cautious, perhaps, is Hon. J. L.
Phillips, republican state chairman for Georgia.

Phillips called on Coolidge, during a recent visit to Washington, to repeat the condition of the G.O.P. in that southern state.

"Georgia," Phillips said after leaving the White House, and presumably voicing the viewpoint he imparted to the president, "has distinctly republican leanings, and may be expected to break away from the democratic fold
and lead a revolution which will sweep

away forever the political tyranny which has bound the south since the days of reconstruction."

He declared he believed the time
had arrived when the republicans of Georgia are ready to arise in their strength and "place that state permanently in the republican ranks."

Now the question is: Are all the political prophets out of step except Phillips? Or did Phillips visit with Cal and his consequent faith in a republican victory cause his optimism to outrun his caution?

Beveridge and Watson
A new battery of runner-ups for the republican vice presidential nomination
has appeared during the past week.

From Indiana, proposed as a balance to offset the influence of Balston on the democratic side, Albert J. Beveridge and Jim Watson, the latter a Hoosier senator, the former an ex-senator. Beveridge supposedly "progressive," Watson admittedly "conservative." The convention may take its choice.

More seriously, however, outside circles of Hoover influence, is the suggestion of General John J. Pershing put forward.

Pershing, his friends believe, would make up in force and physique the physical elements of appeal which Coolidge lacks. "Cal and Jack," they opine, would make a great team.

However, Charley Dawes, head of the reparations commission, still looks
to be the best bet.

Statue of Serenity
The irony of fate! At a time when more political and personal bitterness is present in Washington than at any time in history, the fine arts commission selects a site here for a statue of
"Serenity!"

The statue, which it is hoped may exert a calming influence on the capital, will be placed in Meridian Hill park.

MISS BEAM CALLED IN POISON CASE

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 2.—District Attorney Rowland, conducting investigation into the case of Charles O. Baring, charged with poisoning his wife, expects to hear the story of Miss Mildred Beam today. Mr.

Rowland conferred yesterday with the young woman's counsel and a subpoena issued for her was withdrawn on the understanding that she would appear to answer questions as to whether she is "the other woman" mentioned by Baring.

It was disclosed late yesterday that Baring had planned to sail for Europe on June 7, with a "Mrs. C. O. Baring." Baring's wife denied that she contemplated going abroad, but said her husband had aroused her suspicions by questions he had asked her concerning passports and the places they had visited when they were in Europe together.

GERMAN PROFESSOR COMING
BERLIN, May 2.—Dr. Oskar Hugen, professor of the history of art at the University of Göttingen, will be this year's Carl Schurz memorial professor at the University of Wisconsin, says an announcement of the Prussian ministry of education today. He will teach at Wisconsin the coming winter semester, and will lecture at other institutions.

MALCOLM ALDRICH, YALE STAR, TO WED

FALL RIVER, May 2.—Mr. and Mrs. James Buffington of 570 Rock street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ella Fisher Buffington, to Malcolm Pratt Aldrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Aldrich of 747 Madison street. Malcolm P. Aldrich was a star athlete at Yale and captained the 1922 football team. He also won highest scholastic honors.

DENY ULSTER MOBILIZATION

BELFAST, May 2.—Reports that the Ulster government had ordered one of the border sections of its special constabulary to prepare for mobilization have no foundation in fact, it is declared in competent quarters here. The reports, it appears, arose from the circumstance that this special branch of the Ulster constabulary has an annual training period, like the British territorials, which now is approaching. There is no significance apart from this, it is insisted and nothing pertaining to the border situation has anything to do with it.

SHUBERT THEATRICAL GROUP MAY SECEDE

NEW YORK, May 2.—Led by the Shuberts, members of the newly-formed Managers' Protective association meet their fellows in the Producing Managers' association at their annual meeting today. A demand for accession to the requests of the Actors' Equity association for a new working agreement to embody the equity shop was expected from the new group. Should such a demand be rejected it was predicted that the Shubert group would secede from the old organization and conduct its own negotiations with Equity.

Votes in Favor of U. S.
Joining World Court

Resolution Presented by Judge Rogers of U. S.
Circuit Court

SPRINGFIELD, May 2.—The Methodist Episcopal general conference voted today in favor of the United States joining the world court for the settlement of international disputes. The resolution was presented by Henry Wade Rogers of New York, judge of the United States circuit court and was adopted without a dissenting vote. The resolution read as follows: "Resolved by the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, representing four million, five hundred thousand members, that we favor the proposal made by President Harding in his message of Feb. 21, 1923, and which has been endorsed by President Coolidge and Secretary of State Hughes, and that the government of the United States should join with other nations of the world in the maintenance of and participation in the permanent court of international justice. We favor the determination of international controversies not by force of arms but by the impartial investigation of facts and the application in them of the rules of international law by a world court."

Resolved that we protest against the delay by the foreign relations committee of the senate which has had this proposal before it without action for over a year, and we respectfully ask for immediate and favorable action by that committee and by the senate of the United States.

AUTO SKIDDED ON BRIDGE DRIVER KILLED

FITCHBURG, May 2.—Robert Plummer, 36 years old, a World war veteran, was instantly killed last night when his automobile skidded on a bridge in West Townsend. He was pinned under the machine. His companion, Harvey Johnson, escaped without injury. The accident occurred on Dream Pond road in an isolated part of the town. The bridge, which was shaky, had been used by teams hauling logs. Plummer, a rug maker, and Johnson, were returning from a barnhouse, to which they were on an errand, when the machine went off the bridge and into a small brook. There were no side rails on the bridge, which is on a private road.

LOWELL PRINTERS TURN SONG WRITERS

Song writers come and go; melodies eloquently striking popular fancy of the day linger again, sweep perhaps to far corners of the world of song and dance and then, for the most part, fade away. Ancient favorite song his finger only in a few places where some strain of quality touching melody captures the hearts of the sentimental and holds eternally faithful admirers.

The rise and decline of hectic jazz is familiar to all who have listened and hummed to the lit of the tunes of the broken movements, the dizzying notes that sway and entice; the luredly arranged harmonies, the seductive intonations and disorderly arrangements of the heathen-born chords.

Today lovers of song are turning once more to the sentimental. Music publishers and the retailers have made the discovery. While the demand for lively ditties of the parade roundelay type has shown no great depreciation as yet in the principal song-distributing markets of the United States, there has been a renewed quest of late for something new in the melodies that soothe the heart-strings, awaken sentiments of love and remembrance—songs of the home and home folks—of the days that were and may never be again.

Two well known Lowell young men of avocations quite apart from the world of song, but thorough self-trained musicians, bubbling with enthusiasm, are introducing to Lowell song lovers tomorrow their first published effort.

The process appearing for the first time at the entrance of the American song-writing field are J. Frank Burke and Cleveland K. Nobles, than whom the local printers would find it not without even though the twins have ventured into the realm of song-composers on the side.

The first offering to the Lowell musical world, written and published by Messrs. Burke and Nobles under the business title of "Burro Music Co., Chelmsford, Mass.," is entitled "Memories of Home." The words were written by Mr. Burke and the music composed and arranged by Mr. Nobles. It is a waltz, ballet in four parts, to be sung in moderate tempo. The music has a melodic movement, charming and catchy with sentimental touches.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Newton S. Reed and Miss Sarah A. Lacy were united in marriage yesterday at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Rydell in Willow street. Rev. Leslie Beckey performed the ceremony. Mr. James Rydell and Miss Isabella Rydell attended the couple. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore blue crepe and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Following the ceremony a reception was held. After an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Reed will reside at 27 Marshall street.

Dougherty-Cronshaw Peters-Healey

A very pretty double wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at St. Anne's Episcopal church when Mr. Robert Dougherty and Miss Lillian M. Cronshaw, and Mr. Sidney Shaw Peters and Miss Marion L. Healey, were united in marriage by Rev. Appleton Grannis, rector. The couples attended each other. Mrs. Dougherty wore a beautiful gown of cream brown georgette crepe, trimmed with beads. She wore a hat to match and carried bridal roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Peters wore a gown of powder blue georgette, trimmed with beads. She wore a hat to match and carried orchids and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony, the couples left on an extended wedding trip to New York via the Mohawk trail. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Peters will

Board Will Order Hearing On Oakland Sewer

that all trees on either side would be cut and the street would be a barren way. After hearing fifteen or more platters in remonstrance, J. S. Murphy summed up for the remonstrants. Forty-one stood, he counted as against the proposition and none in favor.

Due to the number of protests on the Stevens street widening no action was taken. This means there will be neither widening nor paving unless the matter is taken from the table at a later date. Councillor Dickson appeared before the board in executive session to recommend immediate macadamizing and a widening to forty-four feet by taking two feet on each side. The suggestion was taken under advisement.

Before starting on their tour the board held an informal conference with Council President Gallagher and Councillor Lambert. These two were designated by the main body to confer with the state civil service commission relative to employment of non-certified laborers on the partial extension of Oakland sewer for which the council has voted $50,000. It is intended by the council that this project should provide work for needy and unemployed family heads.

City Engineer Kearney and Streets Superintendent Doherty were present at the discussion. After talking over various phases, including the possibility of being required to make some hand repairs, it was decided to have a public hearing on the matter three weeks hence and to dispense with as many formalities as possible prior thereto.

Following the viewing, which was completed at 5:30 o'clock the board entered a business session to dispose of routine matters prior to the series of hearings scheduled to be held in the evening. The board voted to authorize Supt. Doherty to put sparrow men back on routes. They have been used for utility work.

Temporarily the condition of Middlebury street near the old car barns and Moody street from Sixth avenue to the city line were received and referred to superintendent of streets for such immediate temporary repairs as may be feasible.

The position of Councillor Cronin and others for discontinuance of street lighting in Varatun avenue met with favorable action. Patrick McGuire was reinstated as an employee in the water department. He has been under workman's compensation because of an injury sustained in the line of duty from which he has now recovered.

On motion of Mr. Murphy, the superintendent of streets was ordered to get a second street patching crew out at work.

Two machines are at present at work in Andover street and the board instructed one machine be sent at once to another section. Mr. Doherty said one of these machines will be sent to Pawtucketville, Chelmsford street and the Pawtucket boulevard will be taken next in order when these sections are cared for. Centralville and the Highlands will be reached in about ten days. The board instructed a schedule of routes for street cleaning machines and about same.

Chairman Murphy asked why the

DIVORCE CASES IN THE PROBATE COURT

In probate court in the Gorham street court house this morning, Judge John Leggat presiding, divorce decrees were granted in the following uncontested cases:

Edith M. Pittre vs. George J. Pittre, of Lowell; the libellant alleging non-support and desertion.

Guy Nelson Whitworth of Lowell vs. Doris Dyer Whitworth of New Britain, Conn., the libellant alleging desertion.

The divorce libel of Leonard A. Furlanks vs. Mabel F. Furlanks was continued one week when Judge Leggat found the libel had not been properly notified.

Favor U. S. in World Court

The chief interest of the 850 delegates to the conference here, centers in the official announcements regarding the committee of five which will carry to Washington the conference's resolution, passed unanimously yesterday against any modification of the 18th amendment or the Volstead enforcement law. The names of three lay delegates nominated yesterday to the committee with Bishops Nicholson of Chicago and Leonard of San Francisco, will be presented for approval and a date for their departure will probably be set.

The resolution followed sharp attacks by two delegates upon President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university, for his criticism of the prohibition law in a speech in New York city last Tuesday. Later in the day a dispatch from New York announced Dr. Butler's refusal of an invitation extended him by Dr. Clarence True Wilson of the board of temperance and public morals to present his views to the conference.

On the program for this afternoon, when the general conference is not in session are mission and educational center meetings, at which Bishop W. P. Thickfield of Mexico City will speak on "The Home Missions Council," and Dr. J. D. C. Coggan on "Prohibition and the Negro Race." Dr. Charles T. Wilson will discuss the political situation in Washington.

PRES. COOLIDGE PICKS BUTLER

Designates Boston Man as His Choice for Republican National Chairmanship

Leaders See in Selection Opportunity to Give Running Start to Party's Campaign

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Republican leaders in Washington saw today in President Coolidge's designation of William M. Butler of Boston, as his choice for the republican national chairmanship, an opportunity to give a running start to the party's presidential campaign.

Close political advisers of the president said this was the motive which actuated him in making the announcement last night that Mr. Butler was his choice for the chairmanship in view of the indicated desire of John T. Adams of Iowa, the present chairman, to retire.

Mr. Coolidge has indicated to many of those who have discussed politics with him in the last week that he regards his nomination as assured and accordingly sees no reason why there should be any delay in getting the campaign ready for its prompt inauguration immediately after the convention.

Mr. Butler likewise regards Mr. Coolidge's nomination as assured and although he is interested in the primaries yet to be held in several states, including California, he feels his pre-convention work is practically at an end. It is Mr. Coolidge's expectation that Mr. Butler, with whom he had an agreement today, will undertake immediately the preparation for the presidential campaign.

The selection of Mr. Butler as national chairman will not actually be made until after the Cleveland convention. The new chairman is elected by the new national committee, members of which are chosen in some states by primaries and in others by the convention delegation. The new national committee, however, in its election of a chairman, always ratifies the choice of the presidential candidate.

The Pomona Grange

The history of Middlesex-North Pomona, the officers and members have set aside a day to honor in executive session the names and records of all the 24 past masters. Six of the names honored by today's membership have passed on; 15 survive, and many of the 18 were present today to accept the Pomona welcome and fraternal accord.

A short but impressive memorial reading in memory of the six departed past masters was a feature of the morning exercises in honor of former leaders. The roll call was read, personal responses being made in happy rejoinder, and showing past masters there from such outside points as North Reading and Lexington.

The noon dinner of the cold meat-vegetables-pastry-and-coffee brand was provided and served by leading members of Burlington Grange. Mrs. E. D. Bennett was chairman. The assisting members were Mr. Charles Wright, Mrs. Walter Welch, Mrs. Charles Gill, Mrs. Walter Fitch, Mrs. Samuel Sewell and Mrs. Fred Richardson.

This afternoon, starting at 3 o'clock, the general public was invited to enjoy the last Pomona concert of the present season, for today winds up the 1923-24 calendar and no more meetings are scheduled until the opening of the fall and winter program early in September. Featured this afternoon were pupils of Mr. Julius Woessner, who directed the program of rare musical offerings in his well known capable style. Mr. Woessner was assisted by Miss Mabel Shaw, Miss Sally Healey, Joseph Lawrence and Little Vincent Clavatta, pupils of the Lowell music instructor and well trained for public entertaining.

Added to the afternoon concert program was the presentation of a novel moving picture, "Water by Wire," showing the ultra-advantages and new uses of moderny-equipped water systems in the rural districts and country homes. Fred R. Goldthwaite of Boston was lecturer.

New England grange lectures will gather in convention at headquarters of the University of New Hampshire, in Durham, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 26, 27 and 28, for study of grange methods, needs and general working programs for the advancement of grange activities of every branch in the New England field. Lowell district grangers plan to make the trip in "auto pilgrimage style" and the topic is already a subject of enthusiastic discussion in and out of grange sessions. Mrs. Grace Dawson is the popular and able lecturer of Middlesex-North Pomona.

Plans for the Durham conference were made at a special meeting of leaders of the movement, held in Boston on March 15 last. Last year, the lecturers rallied at Amherst, and the roll-call showed 313 patrons present. At the Burlington meeting in 1922, 148 patrons answered roll-call.

Plans are now being formulated for the holding of conferences by local grange secretaries, under the direction of State Secretary William N. Howard. This is an actual innovation in grange work. The meetings would have programs covering organization problems and suggestions for improvements, instruction of leaders and subordinate officers and also delve into the phases of the tasks of such officers as secretaries.

Grangers have been asked by national grange headquarters to go to the polls this year in November without fail and cast their votes in the presidential hall. The call to the polls has come from national officers, who asked by the League of Women Voters to urge all feminine grange members enrolled on the voting lists, to fulfill that privilege as a matter of good citizenship duty. New England grange officials hope to enlist 75 per cent. of the women's vote in the organization on the journey to November polls, and Lowell grangers are ready to respond to the appeal from the national leaders.

AND GAME CLUB

Director of State Fish and Game Conservation William C. Adams has promised to visit Lowell next Tuesday evening and address the members of Lowell Fish and Game Association in Odd Fellows hall, Middlesex street. The visitor is a national authority and conversant with every phase of the problems affecting fish and game everywhere.

Mr. Adams will be prepared to answer any questions the club members may desire to have him tackle. His lecture subject will be: "Game Refuge and Public Shooting Grounds." The topic is of especial interest to all good sportsmen at this time, because of the wide interest and discussions following the introduction into congress for enactment of a new federal migratory birds' refuge act, which has not yet been acted upon.

LOWELL HIGH HAS TEN MEN ENTERED

Lowell high has ten men entered in the Boston college interscholastic track and field games at University Heights, Newton, tomorrow afternoon. In this affair, 25 schools have been entered and indications point to some

CITY TWILIGHT
LEAGUE MEETING

At a meeting of representatives of the City Twilight League in Crescent rink last evening, it was decided to play four games a week, beginning Monday, May 12. The split-season will then be in vogue up to July 1 with games scheduled on the South common every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evening. All contests shall start at 6 o'clock. Through an error it was previously stated that the Law bucket A.A. would be represented in this league. The report should have read Lincoln A.A., making six teams with the Americans, Lowell Independents, Butlers, Centralville East End and Holliston.

NEW BRACUT SCHOOL

District school committee has decided not to open the new Parker avenue school until next September. The matter has been discussed freely in board sessions for sometime past but Chairman Nelson E. ABBOTS PLAY TONIGHT

Open Season With So. Boston Redmonds — Play Silesia Mills Sunday

"Big league" baseball in these parts will start this evening when the famous Abbot Worsted outfit of Graniteville, attacks up against the Redmonds of South Boston at the Abbot park in Graniteville. The Redmonds is composed of players who will represent South Boston in the Boston Twilight League this year. The league season opens on May 6, with Abbot Worsted opposing the Lawrence Independents at Graniteville. Sunday, the Abbots begin a three-game series with the Silesia mill aggregation in No. Chelmsford.

Tonight's game promises to be a hummer in every particular. With players recruited from leading colleges, big and minor leagues, the Abbots look forward to their most successful season on the diamond. And that's saying a lot, as every fan in this vicinity is aware of the exceptionally fine ball teams produced by the Abot company with in recent years. Although the tilt with the Redmonds will be purely exhibitional, it will give Graniteville and Lowell fans an opportunity to size up the team and get an insight as to what may be expected of the outfit in the dashy Boston Twi circuit.

The Silesia Mills team which meets Abbot's next Sunday afternoon, experienced a most successful season last year. The series with the Abbots should prove intensely interesting and will doubtless be witnessed by large crowds. In the Lawrence Twilight League team, which opens the regular Abbot season at Graniteville next Tuesday evening, local fans will get a chance to look over the inimitable Jim Thorpe, former Carlisle Indian school star, Olympic phenom and Giant National League outfielder. Thorpe signed a contract with Billy McDonough's outfit during the winter.

BROADWAY CLUB

TO REPEAT SHOW

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Broadway club last night, the organization voted unanimously to give a repeat performance of the club minstrel show for the benefit of the family of the late Capt. Edward L. Cunningham. It was further voted to add to the original performance with specially numbers by local talent.

The 6-8 ft performance will be given in the Memorial Auditorium next Thursday evening. An augmented orchestra has already offered its services for the occasion. The show will be in charge of William Paul McCherby, director, and arrangements for its presentation are in the hands of Eugene A. Fitzgerald, Dominick Molloy and Timothy F. O'Sullivan.

AT THE Y.M.C.A.

In a city league game at the Y.M.C.A. last evening, the Lowell Boys' club basketball team defeated the Y.M.C.A. Juniors by the score of 2 to 1 in the fastest league game of the season. In a second set-re, the Gentrys defeated the Athenians, 21 to 11, and the Trojans triumphed over the Eagles, 15 to 10. Three more games will be played next Tuesday evening.

The Emeralds are pleased to see that the Buffaloes recognized their real sportsmanship when they went down to defeat last Saturday, 8 to 4, the defeat being accompanied with every mark of courtesy that the Emeralds could give to a visiting team. A statement in last night's Sun saying that the Emeralds batters "ate" out of Nichols' hand is more or less untrue for the Emeralds gathered from his delivery one three base, three doubles and four singles, while all the Buffaloes could get from the Emerald hurlers were four strikes. The Emeralds had an exceptionally off day in the field and this accounts for the defeat. So far the Emeralds have played the Buffaloes three times on their own grounds, so they are entitled to another game for next Sunday on the North common for $10.

22 SECRETARY TO FORD CALLED

E. G. Liebold Asked by Senate Committee to Explain Telegrams

Messages From James Martin Miller Read at Muscle Shoals Hearing

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The senate agricultural committee today sought from E. G. Liebold, Henry Ford's private secretary, an explanation of telegrams exchanged between him and James Martin Miller, who claimed to represent Ford's weekly newspaper, the Dearborn Independent in Washington.

One telegram obtained by the committee under subpoena from the Western Union Telegraph Co., quoted President Coolidge as saying he was "trying to deliver Muscle Shoals" to Ford.

Major General C. C. Williams, chief of army ordnance, also was asked to appear today prepared to testify on the merits of the Hoover-White-Archerbury proposal to lease Muscle Shoals for 50 years.

Liebold told the committee he did not know of any telegram having been sent by President Coolidge to Ford. He said he had received telegrams from Miller but that Miller did not represent Ford and had volunteered information. He did not pay a great deal of attention to Miller's telegrams, he added, because they were "vague" and contained little real information.

Chairman Norris read a telegram sent by Liebold to Miller asking Miller to send more information by telegram and adding that an interview would be arranged with Liebold at his Dearborn home. He also read the telegram sent by Miller quoting President Coolidge as saying he was "trying to deliver Muscle Shoals" to Ford.

The telegram from Miller offering more information to be obtained at the White House correspondents' conference also was read and Liebold said he had received it. Miller, he said, came to Dearborn on his own account and he did not know whether he had an interview with Ford at that time.

Liebold read a letter dated Nov. 20, 1923, from Miller, saying that if he represented newspapers here he would have access to sources of information and offering his services to the Dearborn Independent at $300 a month. He offered to keep Liebold informed under his arrangement.

Miller said in the letter he had never represented himself as a representative of Ford but only of the Independent.

"Don't you know that on Dec. 20, 1923, Mr. Ford had a telegram from the president of the United States?" Norris asked.

"I don't know. I can't recall now," Liebold said.

MCGRAY ASSIGNED CELL

Within Brief Space of 36 Hours He Was Changed From Governor to Convict

ATLANTA, Ga., May 2.—Two years ago Governor Warren T. McGray was a distinguished visitor to Atlanta when he attended the Southeastern Fair in charge of an exhibit of fine cattle from one of his Indiana farms. He departed happily with many blue ribbons.

Today he is just one of more than 2000 inmates of the Atlanta federal penitentiary.

Within the brief space of 36 hours he was changed from governor to convict.

The metamorphosis was made complete yesterday when the great iron gates of the prison banged behind him. Inside he was bathed, assigned a cell and a regulation blue denim uniform, and became simply No. 17749.

He was received yesterday from Indianapolis with a large party of federal prisoners, to begin serving a 10-year sentence for using the mails to defraud. A forced jovial mood to cover the nervous strain under which he was laboring was apparent in the crowded station, but he later greeted newspapermen and a row of his friends warmly.

At the prison there were no formalities. He was received just as any ordinary prisoner is admitted, and taken to his cell as soon as the routine assignments were made.

Ex-Judge Landis Testifies

How Grossman's conviction showed on the records as being for contempt of court.

"The contempt of court was charged," Judge Landis said. "Because Grossman continued to run a saloon after a restraining order had been issued to stop him."

Although the judge insisted there were six witnesses to Grossman's declarations, Senator Wheeler cited a department of justice report containing to President Coolidge that but one witness had testified to the incident of selling whiskey, which resulted in the man's sentence for contempt.

The activities of Fred Upham, treasurer of the republican national committee, Homer Galt, Cook county chairman, and others of political power, must be criticized, Judge Landis said, in the Grossman case.

Asked whether he meant to criticize the exercise of executive authority in the case, Judge Landis replied that he "couldn't understand how Grossman ever got his pardon."

"If you want to call that attitude criticism," he added, "I have all right to do it."

It was pointed out that C. W. Middendorf, special assistant attorney general in Chicago, recommended Grossman's pardon.

"I think Middendorf talked to me," Judge Landis said, "and said the evidence against Grossman should not have been depended upon, because one of the witnesses was not creditable."

"I told him to remember that other fellow Grossman got pardoned. If the same evidence should be taken out, too. You know, you don't get a Sunday school convention in these liquor cases."

LUNENBURG SCHOONER DELAWANNA LOST OFF NOVA SCOTIA

Canadian Entrant in International Race in 1920 Goes Down—Captain and Crews Escaped in Dorries and Made Shore in Safety

HALIFAX, N. S., May 2.—The Lunenburg schooner Delawanna, Canadian entrant in the first international schooner race in 1920, in which the Gloucester boat Esperanto was the winner, was lost yesterday on the eastern coast of Nova Scotia.

The Delawanna's springing snapped, causing the ship to crash down, smashing in the stern of the boat.

Captain Cook and crew escaped in dories and made shore in safety.

Long Series of Disasters.

BOSTON, May 2.—The loss of the schooner Delawanna off Nova Scotia yesterday, adds one more to the long series of disasters that have overtaken boats which have sought the international fishermen's trophy.

The Gloucester schooner Esperanto, which won from the Delawanna in the first series in 1920, was wrecked off Schell Island, N. S., in June, 1921.

Albion, on the same spot the Gloucester schooner Puritan, built as a cup contender for the 1921 race series, ended her career in June, 1922, two months after her launching. The schooner Elizabeth Howard, unsuccessful contender in the elimination contests, to choose the American representative in the races for the trophy, was lost off here.

COMBINED U. S. FLEETS GOING TO HAWAII

NEWPORT, R. I., May 2.—Arrangements for the Atlantic fleet to join the Pacific fleet at San Pedro next January, and for the combined United States fleet to proceed to Hawaii in February, were made known in naval circles here today. After two weeks' overhaul, the entire fleet will sail for San Francisco and after overhaul and refueling there, the Atlantic fleet will proceed through the Panama Canal to Guantanamo, Cuba, for gunnery practice while the Pacific fleet will return to San Pedro for gunnery work.

The fleet plans for the fiscal year beginning July 1 next also call for a midshipman cruise in July and August for the battleship division of the scouting fleet, as the Atlantic fleet is officially designated with type tactics at Newport in July for the destroyer, light cruiser and aircraft squadrons. The three squadrons will join the battleship division for gunnery practice on the southern drill grounds in September and October, ending with the working out of a scouting fleet problem and the return of all vessels to their home ports for overhauling in November and December.

All divisions and squadrons of the battle fleet, the Pacific portion of the naval force, will have division exercises and tactics in Puget Sound in July and August, battle tactics at San Francisco in September, gunnery practice at San Pedro for the battleship divisions and at San Diego for the destroyer squadrons, aircraft squadrons and submarine divisions in October and November and battle tactics at San Pedro in December.

After leaving Guantanamo in May of next year the Atlantic fleet will proceed to home ports and there will be a midshipman's cruise of the battleship division in June. The battleship division of the Pacific fleet will remain at San Pedro and the other squadrons and divisions at San Diego through April and May and the various warships will be assigned ports by divisions for two weeks' tactics and uncompleted gunnery work in June.

called to hold Williams but no one held him and I do not know where he is now. Mrs. Torjhan identified one of the two banners shown by the government and found in Williams' kitchen after Torjhan's death. Dr. Alling said there were ten lacerations, eight fractures, and one abrasion on Torjhan's head, all apparently caused by a blunt instrument or instruments.

The third witness was Leo A. Heban, Lowell police department chauffeur, who testified to finding the two banners shown in room in Williams' room on the day of the murder. They were covered with blood, he said.

A coat and vest, both extensively blood-stained, and said to be the property of the defendant, were introduced by the government as exhibits. The government claims both garments were worn by Williams on the day of the murder.

name of Gladys Moore, but had never known of Burney being in her home. Cross-examined further, the witness said that although Williams had asked her for a hammer, he had not asked her to have her husband bring one to his room when he came in.

When she began to testify, Mrs. Torjhan said that Williams had been a lodger at her house for two or three weeks previous to January 7. She had not known him prior to that time. Her husband and Williams never quarreled that she knew of. He had paid his room rent in advance. In reply to a question by Mr. Layelle, witness said Williams had been a quiet lodger.

Medical Examiner Testifies

The first witness called this morning was Dr. Marshall L. Alling of Lowell, medical examiner. He testified as to performing the autopsy upon Torjhan's body. He said death was caused by multiple fractures of the skull which would have been made with hammers similar to the ones produced by the government and found in Williams' kitchen after Torjhan's death.

After the heat is deflected upward it strikes the Baker's Arch at the top of the oven, which throws the heat currents down and keeps them in thorough and uniform circulation over the baking.

FAVORS COMPLETE MOTORIZATION OF FIRE DEPARTMENT

City Council Committee Approves Recommendations of
Fire Chief Saunders—Total Cost Would Approximate $50,000—Mayor Will Approve Loan

A recommendation for the complete motorization of the fire department was adopted by the public safety committee of the city council at a meeting last night called for the purpose of investigating the needs of the fire department. Fire Chief Edward F. Saunders and City Solicitor Patrick J. Reynolds were present and the former tentatively recommended the purchase of a motor truck, similar to the one now located in Lawrence street, and one triple combination pumping engine, on motion of Councilor Arthur G. Gennet, the committee voted in favor of purchasing a second triple combination pump for the Lawrence street station and house and the chief included this in his recommendation. The total cost of the apparatus needed is slightly less than $50,000.

Solicitor Reynolds, speaking as the representative of Mayor Donovan, said that the mayor was ready at this time to approve any loan order within the limit set by the state finance law. He suggested, after Chief Saunders' tentative recommendation was made, that the council add to the appropriation of the department $24,000 and then to bring in an order for a loan for the balance necessary. This action would be necessary, he said, to bring the department's appropriation up to the limit set by the state finance law.

A sub-committee was named to draw up an ordinance which will give the fire chief authority to investigate all buildings for fire hazards and have defective buildings razed. This ordinance was thought advisable as, in the opinion of the committee, the chief was held responsible for all fires and should have authority to deal with as many fire risks as possible.

The meeting was called to order shortly after 8 o'clock by Chairman James P. Hennessy. Present were Councilors David Dickson, Frederick A. Sadlier, Daniel Moriarty, John J. McPadden, Arthur Gennet of the committee and Councilors Eugene A. Fitzgerald, President James J. Gallagher, and Maurice A. Lambert, were also present. Chairman Hennessy called for the opinion from the committee and all were in favor of immediate action along any line which the chief recommended.

Councilor Moriarty asked the chief what apparatus would be necessary to completely motorize the department. The chief recommended the purchase of a motor truck to take the place of the horse-drawn truck destroyed at Sunday's fire, a city service wagon to take the place of the horse-drawn truck now located in the West 5th street fire house, and one triple combination pumping engine. The chief said that the new apparatus, he said, should be similar to the one now in the Central fire station which was loaned him by the White people for the emergency. This truck, he said, carries 200 feet of ladders and is capable of climbing any hill in the city. With this new apparatus, he said, he would be able to do away with all horses in the department and place the present horse-drawn steamers in reserve.

Councilor Gennet moved that the committee recommend the purchase of a second triple combination pumping engine for the Lawrence street station. His motion was carried and the chief added this to his recommendation.

Questions Superfluous
Councilor Dickson questioned the chief in regard to the superiority of the streams of water furnished by the Lawrence pumps which assisted at the fire. Chief Saunders explained this by saying that the Lowell pumps, rated at 600 gallons capacity, were furnishing water for three hose lines.

Second Week of Consideration—Senate Tries to Speed Up Discussion

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Entering the second week of consideration of the tax reduction bill, the senate tried again today to speed up the discussion with spokesmen of both parties urging prompt action.

Democrats at a conference last night went on record for speeding up the program, while Chairman Simon of the finance committee, in charge of the bill for the majority, late yesterday threatened night sessions to expedite the disposal of the measure.

As a result of two conferences, the democrats were prepared today to make a practically united stand for the Simmons income tax schedule and changes in the corporation and state taxes. The main contests will center on these provisions, although an extended fight for greater publicity of tax returns also has been indicated.

For the third day, debate opened on the treasury proposal to limit tax deductions on the basis of amounts of income received by taxpayers from tax-exempt securities.

Pres. Zayas Sends Urgent Request to Washington for Aid Against Rebels

Government Has 500 Troops

Massed Around Cienfuegos—Warships Nearby

HAVANA, May 2.—The government today had 500 troops around Cienfuegos, near the chief center of the anti-Zayas movement, its warships were patrolling the coasts, and newspaper reports declared that President Zayas had sent an urgent request to the United States government for ten airplanes to be used against the rebels.

The latest word from government officials was that the island was quiet everywhere, except around Cienfuegos and Trinidad on the south coast of Santa Clara province where, it was claimed, that not more than 50 to 60 men are in revolt. However, El Sol, a newspaper temporarily suppressed some weeks ago for saying a revolution was being started, declared that the veterans and patriots' association had organized an uprising throughout the island.

It was believed to be in an effort to forestall such a movement that the government arrested five leaders here and several scores of others in Santa Clara.

Albert Williams on Trial Today at Cambridge For Alleged Murder of Lowell Man

(Special to The Sun.)
CAMBRIDGE, May 2.—Albert Williams, alias Albert Brown, went on trial here today for the murder of Toris Torijlan, Tyler street lodging house keeper on January 7. The government has not pressed a first degree indictment and will prosecute on a charge of murder in the second degree.

A jury was empaneled at 4 p. m. yesterday and the government's case was outlined by Asst. District Attorney Robert T. Bushnell.

Williams was found by Lowell police after the murder hiding in the cellar of Torijlan's house under a pile of burial bags. He is said to have told police that a third man, George Burns, now held as a billed witness, struck the blow that killed Torijlan.

Williams testified to what occurred at her home on the day of the murder. Mrs. Torijlan, wife of the murdered man, when shown the hammer her husband carried to Williams' kitchen and which the government claims was one of the death weapons used by Williams. It was blood-stained.

"Take it away, it makes me faint," she cried. After a test, she was able to go on with her testimony.

Just previous to that, Mrs. Torijlan had testified that on the day of the murder, Williams, a lodger in the house, had come into her kitchen at about 12 o'clock noon and asked her for a hammer to take a nail out of his shoe. She told him she could not get a hammer until her husband came in.

ALBERT WILLIAMS

"Williams went into his room, which was number 15. Pretty soon my husband came in and I told him that Williams had asked me for a hammer to remove a nail from his shoe. My husband took a hammer to Williams' kitchen. A little while later I heard my husband scream. I went to the door of Williams' kitchen and tried to open it but it was locked.

"I asked Williams to open it, telling him that my husband was in there. He would not open it but made a noise as if striking the hammer on the stove and told me my husband was upstairs.

"I then ordered him to open the door and finally he did. Just a little. He struck me on the chest and said my husband was not in there but I saw my husband lying on his back on the floor.

Williams then closed and locked the door again. I called for help and some American people came, including Gladys Moore, who roomed on the third floor. Still Williams would not open the door. He dragged my husband into the adjoining hall, I went in his hand lying on the floor near the door. He was dying and could not talk but was breathing just a little. I asked the people who had come down when I

Chief Saunders Discusses Fire Protection at Chamber of Commerce

When the proposed new building code for the city of Lowell, now in process of completion, is formally approved by the municipal government, it acceptable, many present-day fire hazards will be largely eliminated, in the opinion of chamber of commerce members.

The building code committee of the chamber has about completed an entire revision of the present city building code. The new draft is expected to be ready soon after re-arrangement and indexing. A recent "Bulletin" announced that it is the intention of the committee to have the new building code so indexed that a person who desires to build a single family house can quickly turn to those sections which relate to this type of a building. The same will be true of a garage, a two-family house, an apartment house or a factory.

While there have been no radical changes from the present building code, the chamber "Bulletin" reports, considerable additional material has been added to bring the code in line with new kinds and types of work and buildings, which were not in use at

ISOLATION HOSPITAL HAS MORE PATIENTS THAN EVER BEFORE

In the face of probes, inspections and intrusions the Lowell isolation hospital is today busier than at any time since its creation. Whether the advertising the institution has received has helped business would be hard to say, but the fact remains incontrovertible.

There are today 55 patients at the hospital, 46 of them tubercular and 12 suffering from contagious diseases. Of this last number nine are children ill with measles, removed to the hospital from the Ayer home. Three cases of scarlet fever are also confined there. Two years ago there were 55 patients at the hospital, and up to now that had stood as the record high mark.

DRACUT MAN ARRAIGNED

John Farrell Charged With Polygamy and Neglect of Lawful Wife

(Special to The Sun.)

EAST CAMBRIDGE, May 2.—John Farrell, 71 years old, of Dracut, was arraigned in superior criminal court here this morning and pleaded guilty to charges of polygamy and neglect of his lawful wife, Josephine Farrell, of Framingham. Josephine is said to have been his fourth wife and it was charged that he later married Lena B. Harrington in Dracut, N. Y., and took her to Watertown to live with him in his home there.

The polygamy charge was ordered filed and on the neglect charge the defendant was ordered to pay his wife, Josephine, $5 a week until $300 shall have been paid. In passing sentence, Judge Whiting addressed the prisoner, saying:

"If I find you living with that woman (Josephine) I'll put you in jail."

"Oh, she's back in New York, Your Honor," the defendant piped.

Farrell's domestic entanglements are not new to the courts of Middlesex. In 1912 he was arraigned in the Lowell district court and at that time Josephine Farrell testified he had threatened to kill her. Farrell said today he was found not guilty on that occasion.

ALLEGED YOUTHFUL BURGLAR ARRESTED

A 12-year-old boy was arrested this afternoon on charges of breaking and entering the Foster Hay and Grain Co. and several tenements and lodging houses in Adams, Fletcher and Salem streets. The arrested youth is believed by the police to be one of two boys who have been doing "key work" here during the past week. He will be arraigned in juvenile court next Friday.

NORTH BILLERICA BOY PLACES IRON BAR ON R. R. TRACK

Watchman for Chemical Company Prevents Wreck of Passenger Train by Removing Obstruction—Boy Arraigned at Juvenile Session of District Court Today

The details of what might have proven a disaster, with a possible loss of human life, were revealed at the juvenile session of district court this morning when a 15-year-old North Billerica high school youth was arraigned before Judge Enright on a charge of attempting to obstruct a railroad engine.

The incident occurred near the railroad station in North Billerica, April 24, at 7 o'clock in the evening. Just 12 minutes before Train 3229, carrying a number of Lowell passengers, sped past the station and proceeded safely on its way northward. Its personal unaware of the narrow escape.

At 7 o'clock that evening, John Dunn, a watchman in the employ of the New England Chemical Co., located at a short distance from the railroad on the night in question, and did not place an iron crossbar across the north-bound track leading to Lowell.

According to railroad men, the bar was of sufficient proportions to derail the engine and cause considerable damage.

Knowing that the 6:14 train out of Boston was due to pass the spot at 7:12, Mr. Dunn lost no time in removing the obstruction. It was 7 o'clock then, and as dusk was settling over the neighborhood, Mr. Dunn's quick action is regarded as responsible for averting a wreck. Howard G. Simonds, special officer for the Boston & Maine railroad, was loud in his praise of the watchman in this court.

When arraigned in court, the juvenile pleaded guilty to the charge preferred against him and was continued in $200 for two weeks. He said he was "dazed" on the night in question, and did not realize what he was doing.

SEES REPEAL OF DRY AMENDMENT

Dr. Butler to Carry His Fight on Prohibition Into G.O.P. National Convention

Declares 18th Amendment is Failure and Will Be Repealed Inside of Five Years

NEW YORK, May 2.—Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, probably will carry his fight on prohibition into the republican national convention to which he is a district delegate. While he would make no direct statement yesterday, he announced that he was "ready to go to the bat" on the question and declared that "prohibition is in terror whenever the subject comes up but no matter what is in the platform, prohibition will be the first thing in the mind of the public."

"The 18th amendment will be repealed inside of five years," Dr. Butler said. "It is a failure. Its advocates say New York is one of the wet spots. Fanatics always centre their attacks on New York."

TODAY'S CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

Brought back to this city from Waltham last evening, Wilfrid McManis was arraigned in district court this morning on a charge of stealing an automobile. He was continued in $500 until tomorrow. McManis was arrested for breaking and entering and larceny in Waltham more than a month ago and is now awaiting trial in superior court on these charges.

There were but three other cases in court this morning. Staushaus Jabezlowicz pleaded guilty to illegally keeping liquor and paid a fine of $100. Anthony Kennedy, drunkenness, was continued until May 3.

FINAL ACTION ON BONUS BILL

Senate Adopts Conference Report—Up in House Today for Final Approval

Measure Expected to Be Ready for Despatch to White House by Monday

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The bonus bill was before the house today for final approval with some minor changes made by the senate and agreed to by house conferees to be ratified. Almost without discussion yesterday the senate ratified the report of its conferees and, with similar action by the house, and the completion of some administrative details, the measure will be ready to despatch to the White House, probably tomorrow or Monday.

President Coolidge in his message to congress declared opposition to a bonus. Although his attitude on this particular bill has not been made known, advocates of the measure in both the house and senate insist it can be passed over a veto by the necessary two-thirds majority. The bill was approved by the house by a vote of 357 to 64 and by the senate 67 to 17.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED AT POSTOFFICE

Postmaster Naxler A. Delisle this morning announced the appointment of James A. Finnerty, stamp clerk at the main postoffice on Appleton street, to the position of clerk in charge of the night force to fill the vacancy caused by the appointment of Raymond Dutton to the superintendency of the new branch postal station in the Highlands.

Mr. Finnerty's vacated position in the stamp division will be filled by Arthur W. McLean, who lives at 1091 Gorham street.

Both postal clerks included in today's transfers receive promotions. Both have excellent records. Mr. Finnerty has been attached to the main postoffice employees staff since February, 1908. He was appointed a regular clerk in 1904. He is at present vice president of the State Association of Postoffice Clerks and an active worker in postal workers' affairs, mutual and social.

Mr. McLean is a war veteran with a splendid record, being a lieutenant overseas. He was holding down a busy clerkship in 1917 when called to service. Upon his return, he started at the foot of the ladder once more, performing the special postal duties required of him until his appointment in 1921 as night clerk. His advancement to the position of stamp clerk is well deserved, his comrades say.

REAFFIRM FAITH IN VIRGIN BIRTH

Rev. H. P. Sloane Says Christian Church in One of Most Crucial Periods in History

Urges Methodists to Reaffirm Faith in Doctrines of Virgin Birth and Deity

SPRINGFIELD, May 2.—The Christian church is in one of the most crucial periods of its history, and the Methodist church should therefore reaffirm its faith in the fundamental doctrines of the Virgin Birth and the deity of Christ, the Rev. Harold P. Sloane of New Jersey delegation told the members of the Methodist Episcopal general conference at its session here today. His resolution was referred to the committee on the state of the church, his speech on the resolution having called forth pronounced applause.

"The great headlines the belief in the Virgin Birth and in Christ as the Lord is being questioned," said Dr. Sloane. "The Methodist church stands undivided for the principles and beliefs of common Christianity and a positive, unhesitating expression of faith will go far in helping the church at this juncture of its history."

The conference adopted a resolution asking congress to extend the prohibition law to the Philippine Islands, proposed by Joshua E. Cottingham of Manila and voted support of the Methodist church and press in India in their effort to bring about prohibition there.

This body extends to India its hearty good wishes for complete success in the cause of sobriety. The resolution, proposed by Brenton T. Badley of North India, read in part:

The appointment of a special committee to consider a declaration on the world problem of war was voted on the motion of the Rev. Merion S. Rice of Toledo. The committee was to consist of one member for each area of the church and seven members at large appointed by the board of bishops.

It was announced that the committee of five which will report to congress the conference's stand in favor of the prohibition law and the Volstead enforcement act, had been approved. Bishops Nicholson of Chicago and Leonard of San Francisco are members of the committee, the appointment of which was voted yesterday after eager discussion.

The establishment of a morning watch to be held daily for prayers for divine guidance during the conference was voted on the resolution of Judge H. T. Ames of Pennsylvania. The appointment of a special committee to consider a change in the church constitution for the admission of laymen to the annual regional conferences was also decided. The confirmation of this change, which came before the last annual conference, is still in process of completion. It was stated.

COTTON MILL DIVIDEND CASUALTIES GROW

BOSTON, May 2.—The May dividend dates which in many instances represent the second quarter payments of the textile mills, have brought an additional list of casualties in the shape of passed and reduced distributions for 1924. No better evidence is needed of the trying period through which the industry is passing.

The list below includes the more important cotton mills in Massachusetts which have passed, or reduced dividends since the first of the year. It is characteristic of the breadth of the current depression that the table contains plants producing practically all types of cotton yarns, cloth and knitted products.

HENLE'S COLUMN

NEW YORK, May 2.—Roaming around Broadway for a week, I renewed my acquaintance with Gloria Swanson, the movie actress, who lives in an East 52nd street hotel, and who has been repeatedly rumored as having died. My faith in survival of the spirit is great, but I find it difficult to believe materialization has reached so high a point. No, I did not pinch her, as many since have asked me, but I'm convinced she's alive nevertheless.

Saw a thrilling melodrama reminding me of the 18-20-30-cent days. It was "The Dark Hour," setting its name from a saloon in the Yukon, "where the dust heap of humanity" is blown. Just as the villain is about to drag the "gal" away, lightning strikes the place. Also saw "Cobra," a new drama in which a young sheik makes a rendezvous with his partner's wife which results in her death, and then the question remains should the sheik tell his partner? which he very wisely decides not to do.

Heard that Benny Leonard has started making a series of 12 moving pictures, which probably means the picture public will not see today's lightweight title at stake this summer, though he may defend it.

Read Henry H. Curran's article in The Saturday Evening Post, urging exclusion of all immigrants or cutting the number to a very, very few, and the more I think of it, the more I'm convinced that Curran gets great enjoyment from his own voice.

Saw the world's greatest assemblage of theatrical stars at the annual Equity show at the Metropolitan Opera House. It is impossible to mention all of them by name as every single one of them is a prominence now playing in this city portion of the program.

But can say that Eddie Cantor was easily the popular favorite. The group of English stars in "Charlotte's Revue," including Beatrice Lillie, the comedienne, Gertrude Lawrence and Nelson Keys came second in amount of applause, with John Drew taking third honors. Noticed that several comedians didn't "get over" with their jokes the way they do in their regular shows and believed it was because they wrote the joke themselves. It takes more than a comedian to make a comedian; it also takes a good writer.

Noticed that one of the old-time penny-in-the-slot arcades slipped back on Sixth Avenue near 48th street, and discovered they are as popular as always. These places feed on doll minds and remind me of the filthy travelling carnivals that may be found on the edge of small towns in summer time.

Read a very good biography of William Gibbs McAdoo, by Mary Simon, a volume which she calls "McAdoo: (Cobbles, Merriam) and learned many things about the prospective presidential nominee, the most surprising being that he credits General Sherman's destructive march to the sea "with whatever character" he has developed, because Sherman's wild march played many hardships and privations upon the people near Marietta, Ga., where he was born in 1853, and McAdoo thinks that character is only developed through the stress of suffering and poverty.

Coney Island long has been envious of Atlantic City's boardwalk and rolling chairs. But it need be no longer. When visitors come here this summer they will find a new boardwalk at the famous resort, and they also will find numerous rolling chairs in which to ride. Several hundred of them already are in operation, and with the coming of warmer weather and increased crowds there will be more.

AT LINCOLN HALL

There will be dancing at Lincoln hall tomorrow night with Alton's orchestra furnishing the music. All the latest dance hits will be featured. Manager Roane will continue to hold dances at Lincoln hall until further notice and, as in the past, everything will be done for the comfort and enjoyment of the patrons. Mai Hallett and his boys from New York are scheduled to be in Lowell the coming week and unless plans are changed the dancing public will hear this famous team.

Rheumatic Pains Go Swollen Joints Vanish

Rheuma—The Only Safe and Quick-Acting Remedy for Rheumatism, Gout and Sciatica. Money Back if it Doesn't Satisfy

Thousands of sufferers have freed themselves from the bondage of rheumatism; rid themselves of the torturing pain; reduced the swollen joints, thrown away crutches and crutches and from helpless beings become able to work and be of use to themselves and their families.

They took Rheuma: the modern remedy of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, arthritis, gout and chronic neuritis. Don't be sceptical about Rheuma. You will know in a few hours after beginning the treatment that the poisonous uric acid is leaving your system through the natural channels. You will feel better in a day; you will know you are going to be helped in less than a week.

Don't think because Rheuma is not expensive that it won't bring you back to health. There is no guess work about it. That's why Green's Drug Store and good druggists everywhere sell it with guarantee of money back if it does not give quick and blessed relief almost at once.—Adv.

Fire Protective Laws

the time of the adoption of the present code.

It is expected, Secretary Manager Robinson, John Johnson, E. W. Douglass, George F. Wells said this morning, that the new building code draft will be ready for presentation to the city council at an early date.

The building code committee members are as follows: John J. O'Connor, chairman; John W. Robinson, John Johnson, E. W. Douglass, George F. Wells said this morning, that the new building code draft will be ready for presentation to the city council at an early date.

Edward Saunders, Percy Gilbert, Chas. B. Garmon, Arthur Spaulding, Frank Connors, George W. Stewart, Burton H. Wilson, Ralph Runnels and Albert L. Gibbons.

Fire Chief Victor Chamber

Informal discussions of present and proposed new fire protective laws for the city of Lowell, followed by an prompt call by Fire Chief Saunders at Lowell chamber of commerce headquarters this morning. The chief chatted at length with Secretary Manager Wells, giving some of his views on the present situation governing the physical condition of the city and fire-protective measures.

Chief Saunders had no prepared suggestions to make for publication and the visit at chamber headquarters took on a semblance of formality, the discussion touching upon phases of the building situation and also the building of three-decker wooden apartment houses.

Restrictions on building "three-deckers" today are very limited, fire department officials and business men of the city declare.

One of the objects of the present campaign is to eliminate many alleged fire hazards that endanger valuable properties and also human lives. The matter is being discussed more generally in municipal and civic circles than it ever has been before and many business men believe that this is the proper time to have the situation remedied in the best possible manner for the future safety of all Lowell.

Piles

Can't Be Cured From the Outside. External treatments seldom cure Piles.

Now do surgical operations. The cause is inside—bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.

The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead. To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting will do little.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Green's Drug Store, which will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.—Adv.

Three enjoyable events were held in Post 120, G.A.R., hall yesterday afternoon and evening by members of Jas. A. Garfield Women's Relief Corps, namely: A quilt and sale in the afternoon, a supper at 6 o'clock, and a business meeting at 7:30 o'clock. The quilt and sale was well attended and the tables were in charge of the following: Fanny, Mrs. Alvira Flanders, Mrs. Alice Phelps, apron, Mrs. D. The supper was in charge of Mary Ittess and President Anna C. Holland, and was likewise very well attended. Considerable business was transacted at the business meeting and a donation of $10 was voted for Mrs. Coburn.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE TAKES CHANCE AS JAY WALKER IN CAPITAL

Cautious "Cal" Meandered Through Motor Traffic—
Movements on Political Chessboard as Seen by Special Writer for Sun

BY HARRY B. HUNT,
N.E.A. Service Writer
WASHINGTON, May 2.—Despite his
sobriquet of "Cautious Cal," President
Coolidge is a jay-walker.

And jay-walkers, or so at least the traffic experts tell us, are anything but cautious.

Anyway, just as the departments
were letting out the other evening and
sidewalks were jammed with pedestrians and drivers, Cal decided to shake the links out of his legs before dinner by a brief lunge.

Instead of following the sidewalk,
as he emerged from the east gate of the White House grounds on Pennysylvania avenue, to the cross-walk where pedestrians are supposed to cross, Cal
struck straight out from the curb for
the other side.

Brakes squealed and horns honked
as drivers swerved or slowed up to avoid collision. But Cal, flanked right and left by a secret service man, held
his course. At the middle of the street, he had to pause to let a stream of vehicles pass. At the first opening, however, he plunged in again and made
the other curb.

Which incident may or may not
mean anything. At the time I witnessed it, however, it struck me that
maybe Cal isn't so awfully cautious after all. At least that was one time
when he certainly "took a chance."

Phillips Feels Cautious
Less cautious, perhaps, is Hon. J. L.
Phillips, republican state chairman for Georgia.

Phillips called on Coolidge, during a recent visit to Washington, to report
the condition of the G.O.P. in that southern state.

"Georgia," Phillips said after leaving the White House, and presumably voicing the viewpoint he imparted to
the president, "has distinctly republican leanings, and may be expected to break away from the democratic fold
and lead a revolution which will sweep

away forever the political tyranny
which has bound the south since the
days of reconstruction."

He declared he believed the time
had arrived when the republicans of Georgia are ready to arise in their strength and "place that state permanently in the republican ranks."

Now the question is: Are all the
political prophets out of step except Phillips? Or did Phillips' visit with Cal and his consequent faith in a republican victory cause his optimism to outrun his caution?

Beveridge and Watson
A new battery of runner-ups for the republican vice presidential nomination
has appeared during the past week.

From Indiana, proposed as a balance to offset the influence of Hays on the democratic side, Albert J. Beveridge, a Hoosier senator, the former an executor. Beveridge, supposedly "progressive," Watson, admittedly "conservative." The convention may take its choice.

More seriously, however, outside circles of Hoosier influence, is the suggestion of General John J. Pershing put forward.

Pershing, his friends believe, would make up in force and physique what physical elements of appeal which Coolidge lacks. "Cal and Jack," they
opine, would make a great team.

However, Charley Dawes, head of the reparations commission, still looks
to be the best bet.

Statue of Serenity
The irony of fate! At a time when more political and personal bitterness
is present in Washington than at any time in history, the fine arts commission selects a site here for a statue of
"Serenity!"

The statue, which it is hoped may exert a calming influence on the capitol, will be placed in Meridian Hill park.

LOWELL WOMEN'S CLUB

Member of Professional Women's Club of Boston
Addresses Lowell Women

Eighty enthusiastic persons, including interested guests, a fine banquet served at Maria's, and an excellent program of musical numbers and recitations given by local entertainers, marked the meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club last evening, with the president, Mrs. Rose Jordan Hartford, in the chair.

The opening number of the evening, in which all present participated, was the singing of "America." Following the singing, Mrs. Hartford welcomed those attending, and congratulated them on their faithfulness in attending the meetings.

"Falling Through" and "To Your Arms" were sung by Mrs. Jane Gallagher Leach, accompanied by Mrs. Timothy Ward. As an encore, Mrs. Leach gave "Rose in the End," accompanied by Mrs. Fred Neveve.

A Special Business Session, which took place on the day, a humorous reading, was the next number on the program.

Mrs. Alice Livingston gave, greatly pleasing her audience with this number.

Mrs. Elizabeth I. McNamara, member of the Professional Women's Club of Boston and leader of the University Extension course in parliamentary law, was then introduced by Mrs. Hartford. Mrs. McNamara's subject was "The Things Every Woman Should Know in Order to Take an Understanding Part in Her Club or Organization."

Speaking of the purpose and intent of the Business and Professional Women's club, Mrs. McNamara said in part:

"This group of women has banded together for a purpose. That purpose is the bringing together of the women of this community; women of various thoughts, various minds, numerous business interests; to interchange with each other these thoughts, and to meet in social ways."

"That is a splendid thing for you women, and better still, it is a splendid thing for your community."

"Thirty years ago, women who belonged to clubs were looked upon suspiciously by their neighbors. House bands and children were pelted. The woman's place was in the home. She could not be a homemaker and a housekeeper if she belonged to a club."

"There are few women today who do not belong, not only to one but to many clubs. And they are able to keep their homes in step with their club life, and they are also able to take their place in the business and professional world."

"There is nothing outside that does not affect the home. The conservation of children, the advancement in art, science, all these things are traced to the woman and the home by your club, there is no doubt but that you will be successful, but you must make your membership choice high. Do not seek large membership. Make it a business proposition, for unless you do there are pitfalls awaiting you."

"The spirit of harmony is the essential principle of all clubs. That an organization may be successful, justice, courtesy, one thing discussed at a time, right of the majority to rule, and right of the minority to be heard, must be recognized as the basic rules of a club."

"Place your officers the support they need, and above all respect their office. When we meet together, it means progress; when we work together, it means success. I wish to you the greatest of success in your new club life. May you grow and prosper!"

Following Mrs. McNamara's address, community singing was in progress. Mr. Raymond Kelley followed with two solos, "Ten Thousand Years Ago" and "My Del."

Mr. Frank Board, the next speaker, introduced, in speaking of the newly organized club, said in part:

"While not entirely the business man takes more than a passing interest in this new organization. The business man is asked to be active in public, social and athletic affairs, either by donations, participation, tickets, programs, prizes, etc. The appeal for any and all public or social affairs is always made to the business man. He must do something for the German children, the Boy Scouts' rally, support the American Legion, the Red Cross, the Lowell Guild, and what not. He may be asked to be a member of the chamber of commerce. After taking an active part in all these movements, why be given to his place of business and try to make a little money to buy a couple of trees?"

Mrs. Board then entertained with "Keeping Young" and "How to Manage a Husband," two humorous sketches in the negro dialect.

The closing number by Mrs. Leach, accompanied by Raymond Kelley, was "Aunt Leach," the gathering applauding heartily at the rendition of the ever popular selection.

The tables, which were arranged in a square, were prettily decorated, the prevailing color scheme being pink and green. Large bouquets of pink carnations and greenery were placed in the center of each table, while pink candles were arranged here and there on the tables. Ferns were placed in a broken design along the center of the tables, making a most inviting decoration.

The chandeliers were also prettily arranged in pink, with roses and other flowers hanging from them.

Mrs. E. J. McNeely, Mrs. Fred Neveve and Mrs. H. P. Rooney were given a round of thanks in recognition of their work in decorating the tables.

Monte Carlo, the world's famous gambling resort, continues the back ground for the startling photoplay, "Doomed Paradise," the new thrill picture, from the pen of Paris and Monte Carlo, adapted from a book that was burned by the police of the continent because it was so frank and fearless. You will find this offering somewhat out of the ordinary run of photoplays, and in it Kenneth Harlan, Carmel Myers, Clara Bow and others appear. The second part of the program has the big drama, "Napoleon and Josephine," as an attraction, and this, too, will provide something of a most unusual nature in pictures. This program should rank with the best and most entertaining shown on a local screen in months. Don't miss it.

HALLO THEATRE

Today and tomorrow will mark the final performances of "North of Hudson Bay," which has been playing to capacity audiences at the Hallo theatre all this week. Tom Mix, who is the featured star in this newest-Lowell picture given the best performance of his career. Other photoplay attractions on the bill include the first episode of "Haunted Valley," a new Pathé Chapter Play, with Ruth Roland, "Count-Rail Love," a race track story, a Fox comedy and a Fox News.

In addition to the above, tonight's program there will be offered tonight the usual box four acts of professional troupes. Surely this is the largest and best show in town, for the smallest admission prices in the city.

Henry's in their aerial act. The week's combination of thrills, comedy, romance and unusual plot. It offers laughs and thrills galore.

A Monty Banks comedy and the latest International News round out the program. For Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the management announces the screen adaptation of the celebrated novel, "If Winter Comes."

FIRST FRIDAY OBSERVANCE

In observance of the first Friday of May, masses were celebrated in the Catholic churches of the city this morning, and holy hour services will be held this evening.

HOUSE CLEANING

It is an excellent precaution to put a little Crisco-Pearson into the scrub water, about 3 table-spoonfuls to the ordinary sized pail. By such means you can clean, and at the same time kill many disease germs in bathroom, kitchen, floors, water closets, sinks and garbage pails.

THE STRAND

Monte Carlo, the world's famous gambling resort, continues the back ground for the startling photoplay, "Doomed Paradise," the new thrill picture, from the pen of Paris and Monte Carlo, adapted from a book that was burned

by the police of the continent because it was so frank and fearless. You will find this offering somewhat out of the ordinary run of photoplays, and in it Kenneth Harlan, Carmel Myers, Clara Bow and others appear. The second part of the program has the big drama, "Napoleon and Josephine," as an attraction, and this, too, will provide something of a most unusual nature in pictures. This program should rank with the best and most entertaining shown on a local screen in months. Don't miss it.

MISS BEAM CALLED IN POISON CASE

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 2.—District Attorney Rowland, conducting the investigation into the case of Clarence D. Barling, charged with poisoning his wife, expects to hear the story of Miss Mildred Beam today. Mr.

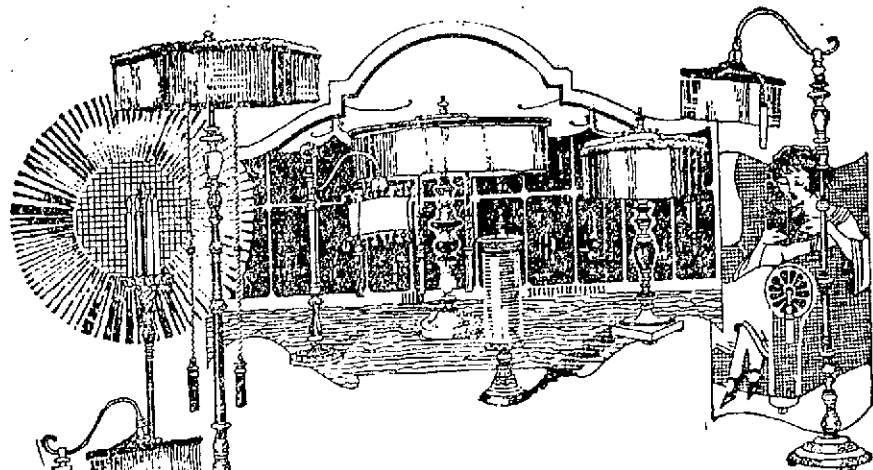

Rowland conferred yesterday with the young woman's counsel and a subpoena issued for her was withdrawn on the understanding that she would appear to answer questions as to whether or she is "the other woman" mentioned by Barling.

It was disclosed late yesterday that Barling had planned to sail for Europe on June 7, with a "Mrs. C. O. Barling." Barling's wife denied that she contemplated going abroad, but said her husband had aroused her suspicions by questions he had asked her concerning passports and the places they had visited when they were in Europe together.

DENY ULSTER MOBILIZATION

RELFEST, May 2.—Reports that the Ulster government had ordered one of the border sections of its special constabulary to prepare for mobilization have no foundation in fact, it is declared in competent quarters here. The reports, it appears, arose from the circumstance that this special branch of the Ulster constabulary has an annual training period, like the British territorials, which now is approaching. There is no significance apart from this, it is insisted and nothing pertaining to the border situation has anything to do with it.

AUTO SKIDDED ON BRIDGE DRIVER KILLED

FITCHBURG, May 2.—Robert Plummer, 26 years old, a World war veteran, was instantly killed last night when his automobile skidded on a bridge in West Townsend. He was pinned under the machine. His companion, Harvey Johnson, escaped without injury.

The accident occurred on Dream Pond road in an isolated part of the town. The bridge, which was shaky, had been used by teams hauling logs. Plummer, a rug maker, and Johnson, who were returning from a farmhouse, when they went on an errand, when the machine went off the bridge and into a small brook. There were no side rails on the bridge, which is on a private road.

LOWELL PRINTERS TURN SONG WRITERS

Song writers come and go; melodies eloquently striking popular fancies of the day linger apace, sweep perhaps to the far corners of the world of song and dance and then, for the most part, fade away. Ancient favorite songs linger only in a few places where some strain of quality touching melody captures the hearts of the sentimental and holds eternally faithful admirers.

The rise and decline of hectic jazz is familiar to all who have listened and hummed to the lit of the tunes of the broken movements, the dizzying notes that sway and caress; the jaggedly arranged harmonies, the seductive intonations and disorderly arrangements of the heathen-born chords.

Today lovers of song are turning once more to the sentimental. Music publishers and the retailers have made the discovery. While the demand for lively ditties of the parade roundelay type has shown no great depreciation as yet in the principal song-distributing markets of the United States, there has been a renewed quest of late for something new in the melodies that soothe the heart-strings, awaken sentiments of love and remembrance—songs of the home and home folks—of the days that were and may never be again.

Two well known Lowell young men of avocations quite apart from the world of song, but thorough self-trained musicians, bubbling with enthusiasm, are introducing to Lowell song lovers tomorrow their first published effort.

The producers appearing for the first time at the end of the American song-writing field are J. Frank Burke and Cleveland K. Nobles, then whom the local printers' world would fain not be without, even though the team have ventured into the realm of song composers on the side.

The first offering to the Lowell musical world, written and published by Messrs. Burke and Nobles under the business title of "Burke Music Co., Chelmsford, Mass.," is entitled "Memories of Home." The words were written by Mr. Burke and the music composed and arranged by Mr. Nobles. It is a waltz ballad in four parts, to be sung solo or in chorus. The music has a melodic movement, charming and catchy with sentimental touches.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Newton S. Reed and Miss Sarah A. Lucy were united in marriage yesterday at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ryder, in Willie street. Rev. Joseph Hadden performed the ceremony. Mr. James Ryder and Miss Isabella Ryder attended the couple. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid wore blue crepe and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Following the ceremony a reception was held. After an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Reed will reside at 27 Marshall street.

Dougherty-Cronshaw Peters-Healey

A very pretty double wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon at St. Anne's Episcopal church when Mr. Robert Dougherty and Miss Lillian M. Cronshaw, and Mr. Sidney Shaw Peters and Miss Marion L. Healey, were united in marriage by Rev. Appleton Grannis, rector. The couples attended each other. Mrs. Dougherty wore a beautiful gown of coral brown georgette crepe, trimmed with beads. She wore a hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Peters wore a gown of powder blue georgette, trimmed with beads. She wore a hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Following the ceremony, the couples left on an extended wedding trip to New York via the Mohawk trail. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Peters will

Board Will Order Hearing On Oakland's Sewer

That all trees on either side would be lost and the street would be a barren way. After hearing fifteen or more abutters in remonstrance, J. S. Murphy summed up for the remonstrants. Forty-one stood, he counted as against the proposition and none in favor.

Due to the number of protests on the Stevens street widening no action was taken. This means there will be neither widening nor paving unless the matter is taken from the table at a later date. Councilor Dickson appeared before the board in executive session to recommend immediate macadamizing and a widening to forty-four feet by taking two feet on each side. The suggestion was taken under advisement.

Before starting on their tour the board held an informal conference with Council President Gallagher and Councilor Lambert. These two were designated by the main body to confer with the state civil service commission relative to employment of non-certified laborers on the partial extension of Oakland's sewer for which the council has voted $50,000. It is intended by the council that this project should provide work for needy and unemployed family heads.

City Engineer Kearney and Streets Superintendent Doherty were present at the discussion. After talking over various phases, including the possibility of being required to make some land seizures, it was decided to have a public hearing on the matter three weeks hence and to dispense with as many formalities as possible prior thereto.

Following the viewing, which was completed at 5:30 o'clock the board entered a business session to dispose of routine matters prior to the series of hearings scheduled to be held in the evening. The board voted to authorize Supt. Doherty to put sparrow men back on routes. They have been used for utility work.

Complaints of the condition of Middlesex street near the old car barns and Moody street from Sixth avenue to the city line were received and referred to superintendent of streets for such immediate temporary repairs as may be feasible.

The petition of Cornelius Cronin and others for discontinuance of street grading in Varnum avenue met with favorable action. Patrick McQuade was reinstated as an employee in the water department. He has been under workman's compensation because of an injury sustained in the line of duty from which he has now recovered.

On motion of Mr. Murphy, the superintendent of streets was ordered to set a second street patching crew out at work.

Two machines are at present at work in Andover street and the board instructed one machine be sent at once to another section. Mr. Doherty said one of these machines will be sent to Pawtucketville. Chelmsford street and the Pawtucket boulevard will be taken next in order when these sections are cared for.

Centralville and the Highlands will be reached in about ten days. The board instructed the superintendent to submit a schedule of routes for street cleaning machines and submit same.

Chairman Murphy asked why the

DIVORCE CASES IN THE PROBATE COURT

In probate court in the Gorham street court house this morning, Judge John C. Leggat presiding, divorce decrees were granted in the following uncontested cases:

Edith M. Pitts vs. George J. Pitts, both of Lowell; the libellant alleging non-support and desertion.
Guy Nelson Whitworth of Lowell vs. Doris Eyer Whitworth of New Britain, Conn., the libellant alleging desertion.
The divorce of Leonard A. Fairbanks vs. Mabel P. Fairbanks was continued one week when Judge Leggat found the libellee had not been properly notified.

Favor U. S. in World Court

The chief interest of the 550 delegates to the conference here, centers on the official announcements regarding the committee of five which will carry to Washington the conference's resolution, passed unanimously yesterday against any modification of the 18th amendment or the Volstead enforcement law. The names of three lay delegates nominated yesterday to the committee with Bishops Nicholson of Chicago and Leonard of San Francisco, will be presented for approval and a date for their departure will probably be set.

The resolution followed sharp attacks by two delegates upon President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia university for his criticism of the prohibition law in a speech in New York city last Tuesday. Later in the day a dispatch from New York announced Dr. Butler's refusal of an invitation extended him by Dr. Clarence True Wilson of the board of temperance and public morals to present his views to the conference.

On the program for this afternoon, when the general conference is not in session are mission and educational center meetings, at which Bishop W. P. Thirkield of Mexico City will speak on Mexico; the Rev. C. E. Vermilya on "The Home Missions Council," and Dr. J. D. Coggan on "Evolution and the Negro Race." Dr. Charles T. Wilson will discuss the political situation in Washington.

PRES. COOLIDGE PICKS BUTLER

Designates Boston Man as His Choice for Republican National Chairmanship

Leaders See in Selection Opportunity to Give Running Start to Party's Campaign

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Republican leaders in Washington saw today in President Coolidge's designation of William M. Butler of Boston, as his choice for the republican national chairmanship, an opportunity to give a running start to the party's presidential campaign.

Close political advisers of the president said this was the motive which actuated him in making the announcement last night that Mr. Butler was his choice for the chairmanship in view of the indicated desire of John T. Adams of Iowa, the present chairman, to retire.

Mr. Coolidge has indicated to many of those who have discussed politics with him in the last week that he regards his nomination as assured and accordingly sees no reason why there should be any delay in getting the campaign ready for its prompt inauguration immediately after the convention.

Mr. Butler likewise regards Mr. Coolidge's nomination as assured and although he is interested in the primaries yet to be held in several states, including California, he feels his pre-convention work is practically at an end. It is Mr. Coolidge's expectation that Mr. Butler, with whom he had an agreement today, will undertake immediately the preparation for the presidential campaign.

The selection of Mr. Butler as national chairman will not actually be made until after the Cleveland convention. The new chairman is elected by the new national committee, members of which are chosen in some states by primaries and in others by the convention delegation. The new national committee, however, in its election of a chairman, always ratifies the choice of the presidential candidates.

The Pomona Grange

The history of Middlesex-North Pomona, the officers and members have set aside a day to honor in executive session the names and records of all the 24 past masters. Six of the names honored by today's membership have passed on; 18 survive, and many of the 18 were present today to accept the Pomona welcome and fraternal accord.

A short but impressive memorial reading in memory of the six departed past masters was a feature of the morning exercises in honor of former leaders. The roll-call was read, personal responses being made in happy rejoinder, and showing past masters there from such outside points as North Reading and Lexington.

The noon dinner of the cold meat-vegetables-pasty-and-cream brand was provided and served by leading members of Burlington grange. Mrs. E. D. Bennett was chairman. The assisting members were Mr. Charles Wright, Mrs. Walter Welsh, Mrs. Charles Gill, Mrs. Walter Fitch, Mrs. Samuel Sewell and Mrs. Fred Richardson.

This afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock, the general public was invited to enjoy the last Pomona concert of the present season, for today winds up the 1923-24 calendar and no more meetings are scheduled until the opening of the fall and winter program early in September. Featured this afternoon were pupils of Mr. Julius Woessner, who directed the program of rare musical offerings in his well known capable style. Mr. Woessner was assisted by Miss Mabel Shaw, Miss Sally Healey, Joseph Lawrence and little Vincent Clavetta, pupils of the Lowell music instructor and well trained for public entertaining.

Added to the afternoon concert program was the presentation of a novel moving picture, "Water by Wire," showing the ultra-advantages and new uses of modernity-equipped water systems in the rural districts and country homes. Fred B. Goldthwaite of Boston was lecturer.

New England grange lectures will gather in convention at headquarters of the University of New Hampshire, in Durham, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, August 26, 27 and 28, for study of grange methods, needs and general working programs for the advancement of grange activities of every branch in the New England field. Lowell district grangers plan to make the trip in "panta phantasmagoria" and the topic is already a subject of enthusiastic discussion in and out of grange sessions. Mrs. Grace Dawson is the popular and able lecturer of Middlesex-North Pomona.

Plans for the Durham conference were made at a special meeting of leaders of the movement, held in Boston March 15, last. Last year, the lecturers rallied at Amherst, and the roll-call showed 219 patrons present. At the Burlington meeting in 1922, 783 patrons answered roll-call.

Plans are now being formulated for the holding of conferences by local grange secretaries, under the direction of State Secretary William N. Howard. This is an actual innovation in grange work. The meetings would have programs covering organization problems and suggestions for improvements, instruction of leaders and subordinate officers and also delve into the phases of the tasks of such officers as secretaries.

Grangers have been asked by national grange headquarters to go to the polls this year in November without fail and cast their votes in the presidential ballot. The call to the polls has come from national officers, who asked by the League of Women Voters to urge all feminine grange members enrolled on the voting lists, to fulfill that privilege as a matter of good citizenship duty. New England grange officials hope to enlist 75 per cent. of the women's vote in the organization on the journey to November polls, and Lowell grangers are ready to respond to the appeal from the national leaders.

Why

is Gargoyle Mobiloil the best of all oils to put in your Home Garage?

Because it is made by the Vacuum Oil Company, who are the world's foremost specialists in lubrication—and—

Because Mobiloil is produced from crude stocks selected entirely for their lubricating value—not gasoline yield—and—

Because the selection of the correct grade for your car is made easy and sure through the Chart of Recommendations which progressive dealers have on their walls—and—

Because the individual recommendations of the Chart are endorsed by nearly 500 manufacturers of automobiles, motor trucks, farm tractors, and automotive stock engines—and—

Because Mobiloil is recommended in more automobile instruction books than any two other oils—and—

Because Mobiloil is asked for by more motorists than any three other oils combined—and—

Because Mobiloil may be bought in sealed containers especially suitable for your Home Garage. For example, the 5-gallon can, and the 15-, 30-, or 55-gallon steel drum which comes with a convenient, leak-proof faucet.

Put Mobiloil in your Home Garage! Be sure to use the correct grade as shown on the Chart of Recommendations in case you do not already know it.

ABBOTS PLAY TONIGHT

Open Season With So. Boston Redmonds — Play Silesia Mills Sunday

"Big league" baseball in these parts will start this evening when the famous Abbot Worsted outfit of Graniteville, stacks up against the Redmonds of South Boston at the Abbot park in Graniteville. The Redmonds is composed of players who will represent South Boston in the Boston Twilight league this year. The league season opens on May 6, with Abbot Worsted opposing the Lawrence Independents at Graniteville. Sunday, the Abbots begin a three-game series with the Silesia mill aggregation in No. Chelmsford.

Tonight's game promises to be a hummer in every particular. With players recruited from leading colleges, big and minor leagues, the Abbots look forward to their most successful season on the diamond. And that's saying a lot, as every fan in this vicinity is aware of the exceptionally fine ball teams produced by the Abbot company with in recent years.

Although the tilt with the Redmonds will be purely exhibitional, it will give Graniteville and Lowell fans an opportunity to size up the team and get an insight as to what may be expected of the outfit in the Hasty Boston Twp circuit.

The Silesia Mills team which meets the Abbots next Sunday afternoon, experienced a most successful season last year. The series with the Abbots should prove intensely interesting and will doubtless be witnessed by large crowds. In the Lawrence Twilight league team, which opens the regular Abbot season at Graniteville next Tuesday evening, local fans will get a chance to look over the formidable Jim Thorpe, former Carlisle Indian school star, Olympic phenom and Giant National league outfielder. Thorpe signed a contract with Billy McDonough's outfit during the winter.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Broadway club last night, the organization voted unanimously to give a repeat performance of the club minstrel show for the benefit of the family of the late Capt. Edward P. Cunningham. It was further voted to add to the original performance with specialty numbers by local talent.

The benefit performance will be given in the Memorial Auditorium next Thursday evening. An augmented orchestra has already offered its services for the occasion. The show will be in charge of William Paul McCarthy, director, and arrangements for its presentation are in the hands of Eugene A. Fitzgerald, Dominick Molloy and Timothy P. O'Sullivan.

In a city league game at the Y.M.C.A. last evening, the Lowell Boys' club basketball team defeated the Y.M.C.A. Juniors by the score of 9 to 8 in the fastest league game of the season. In a second set-to, the Enters defeated the Athletes, 21 to 14, and the Triangles triumphed over the Hoops, 15 to 10. Three more games will be played next Tuesday evening.

There are 40,000 unemployed boys and girls in London.

MORAN MEETS CHILEAN
Fans Look for Bristling, Old-Fashioned Battle at Madison Square Garden

NEW YORK, May 2.—Fight fans expect a bristling, old-fashioned, punch-weight mauler at Madison Square Garden tonight when Vol Moran of New Orleans, meets Luis Velez, Chilean fighter, in a 12-round decision bout at 135 pounds, for the right to challenge champion Benny Leonard.

Moran, 35, and Velez, 24, when Leonard failed to knock out after 10 rounds, gave the champion the swing of his jaw, has added eleven years of long experience to his defense. Velez, the 5'10" of the little man, lacks the biceps of his opponent, but swings powerfully and volitionally from a full round position.

The Chilean is regarded by experts as possessing a punch harder than Leonard's at long range, but apparently lacking in ability to put power

SECRETARY TO FORD CALLED

E. G. Liebold Asked by Senate Committee to Explain Telegrams

Messages From James Martin Miller Read at Muscular Shoals Hearing

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The senate committee today sought from E. G. Liebold, Henry Ford's private secretary, an explanation of telegrams exchanged between him and James Martin Miller, chairman of the Ford-Miller committee in Washington.

One telegram obtained by the committee under subpoena from the Western Union Telegraph Co. quoted President Ford as saying he was "trying to deliver Muscular Shoals" to Ford.

Senator General C. C. Williams, chief of army ordnance, also was asked to appear today prepared to testify on the merits of the Ford-Miller committee report to leave Muscular Shoals for 60 years.

Liebold told the committee he did not know of any telegram having been sent by President Ford to Miller. He said he had received telegrams from Miller but that Miller did not represent Ford and had volunteered information. He did not pay a great deal of attention to Miller's telegrams, he added, because they were "gossip" and contained little real information.

Chairman Norris read a telegram sent by Liebold to Miller asking Miller to send more information by telegram, and adding that an interview would be arranged with Liebold at his Dearborn home. He also read the telegram received by Miller stating President Ford's reply as saying he was "trying to deliver Muscular Shoals" to Ford.

The telegram from Miller offering more information to be obtained at the White House, correspondents' conference, also was read and Liebold said he had received it. Miller, he said, came to Dearborn on his own account and he did not know whether he had an interview with Ford at that time.

Liebold read a letter dated Nov. 20, 1923, from Miller, saying that if he represented newspapers here he would have access to sources of information and offering his services to the Dearborn Independent at $200 a month. He offered to keep Liebold informed under his arrangement.

Miller said in the letter he had never represented himself as a representative of Ford but only of the Independent.

"Don't you know that on Dec. 20, 1923, Mr. Ford had a telegram from the president of the United States?" Norris asked.

"I don't know. I can't recall now," Liebold said.

MCCRAY ASSIGNED CELL

Within Brief Space of 36 Hours He Was Changed From Governor to Convict

ATLANTA, Ga., May 2.—Two years ago Governor Warren T. McGray was a distinguished visitor to Atlanta when he attended the Southeastern Fair in charge of an exhibit of fine cattle from one of his Indian farms. He departed happily with many blue ribbons.

Today he is just one of more than 2000 inmates of the Atlanta federal penitentiary.

Within the brief space of 36 hours, he was changed from governor to convict.

The metamorphosis was made complete yesterday when the great iron gates of the prison clanged behind him. Inside he was bathed, assigned a cell and a regulation blue denim uniform, and became simply No. 17746.

He was received yesterday from Indianapolis with a large party of federal prisoners, to begin serving a five-year sentence for using the mails to defraud. A forced jovial mood to greet the nervous strain under which he was laboring was apparent in the crowded station, but he later greeted newspapermen and a few of his friends warmly.

At the prison there were no formalities. He was received just as any ordinary prisoner is admitted, and taken to his cell as soon as the routine assignments were made.

Ex-Judge Landis Testifies

how Grossman's conviction showed on the records of the court of contempt of court.

"The contempt of court was charged on Judge Landis said, 'because this man continued to run a saloon after a restraining order had been issued to stop him.'"

Although the judge insisted there were six witnesses to Grossman's convictions, Senator Wheeler cited a department of justice representation to President Coolidge that but one witness had testified to the incident of selling whiskey, which resulted in the man's sentence for contempt.

The activities of Fred Cramer, treasurer of the republicans, national committee, Homer Galt, chief, county chairman, and others of political power, must be criticized, Judge Landis said, in the Grossman case.

Asked whether he meant to exercise the power of executive authority in the case, Judge Landis replied that he "couldn't understand how Grossman ever got his pardon."

"If you want to call that political criticism," he added, "I am. I have to let it stand."

It was pointed out that C. W. Middlebrooke, special assistant attorney general in Chicago, recommended Grossman's pardon.

"I think Middlebrooke talked to me," Judge Landis said, "and said the evidence against Grossman should not have been depended upon, because one of the witnesses was not credible."

"I told him to remember that if Grossman got pardoned, the other fellows convicted upon the same evidence should be gotten out, too. You know, you don't get Sunday school convention in these liquor cases."

LUNENBURG SCHOONER DELAWANNA LOST OFF NOVA SCOTIA

Canadian Entrant in International Race in 1920 Goes Down—Captain and Crews Escaped in Dories and Made Shore in Safety

HALIFAX, N. S., May 2.—The Lunenburg schooner Delawanna, Canadian entrant in the first international schooner race in 1920, in which the Gloucester boat Esperanto was the winner, was lost yesterday on the eastern coast of Nova Scotia.

The Delawanna's springing snapped, causing the mahogany to crash down, smashing in the stern of the boat.

Captain Cook and crew escaped in dories and made shore in safety.

Long Series of Disasters.—The schooner Delawanna off Nova Scotia yesterday, adds one more to the long series of disasters that have overtaken boats which have sought the international fishermen's trophy.

The Gloucester schooner Esperanto, which won from the Delawanna in the first race in 1920, was wrecked off Sable Island, N. S., in June, 1921.

Almost on the same spot the Gloucester schooner Puritan, built as a cup contender for the 1922 race, was wrecked off her course in June, 1922, a month after her launching. The schooner Elizabeth Bonavent, unsuccessful contender in two elimination contests, to choose the American representative in the races for the trophy, was lost off here.

Lowell Murder Case On Trial

called to hold Williams but no one held him and I do not know where he went. Mrs. Torrijan identified one of the two hammers shown by the government as the one her husband had taken into Williams' room.

On cross-examination by Williams' attorney, Thomas D. Lavalla of Boston, Mrs. Torrijan said she did not know "Snowball" Hurney. She had never seen him at the house in Tyler street.

She said she had a lodger by the name of Gladys Moore, but had never known of Hurney being in her home.

Cross-examined further, the witness said that although Williams had asked her for a hammer, he had not asked her to have her husband bring one to his room when he came in.

When she began to testify, Mrs. Torrijan said that Williams had been a lodger at her house for two or three weeks previous to January 7. She had not known him prior to that time. Her husband and Williams never quarreled that she knew of. He had paid his rent in advance. In reply to a question by Mr. Lavalla, witness said Williams had been a quiet lodger.

Medical Examiner Testifies

The first witness called this morning was Dr. Marshall L. Alling of Lowell, medical examiner. He testified as to performing the autopsy upon Torrijan's body. He said death was caused by multiple fractures of the skull which could have been made with hammers similar to the ones produced by the government and found in Williams' kitchen after Torrijan's death. Dr. Alling said there were ten lacerations, eight fractures, and one abrasion on Torrijan's head, all apparently caused by a blunt instrument or instruments.

The third witness was Len A. Hogan, Lowell police department chauffeur, who testified to finding the two hammers shown in court in Williams' room on the day of the murder. They were covered with blood, he said.

A coat and vest, both extensively blood-stained, and said to be the property of the defendant, were introduced by the government as exhibits. The government claims both garments were worn by Williams on the day of the murder.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 7

Of course, the little adventurer was very much interested at what was going on inside. There were big and little elephants and they were all tossing hay and straw into the air. Jack looked around for his old friend Boscoe, but couldn't see him. "I suppose he's still working," thought Jack.

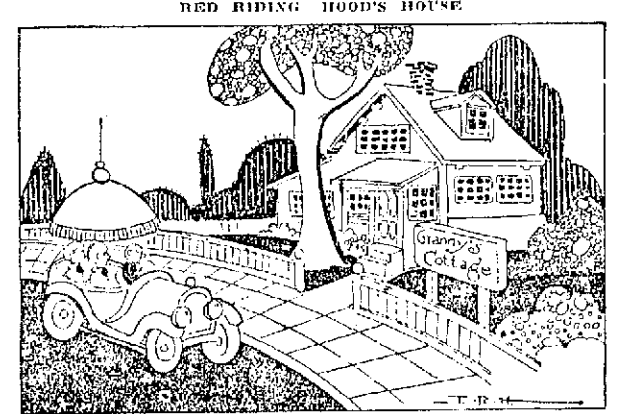

Everything was all right and nobody was bothering Jack. Then Flip suddenly sneaked through the opening Jack had made at the bottom of the tent and this attracted several men's attention to Jack. "Get out of there!" shouted one of the men as he started on the run, for Jack.

When Flip saw that his master was in danger he growled and jumped at the man. "Let him alone!" shouted Jack, as he crawled inside of the tent to protect the man from his dog. Flip immediately slunk down and the elephant man, instead of being angry, thanked Jack. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

AND THERE STOOD A LITTLE HOUSE WITH A NEAT SIGN.

"Would you like to go and call on Red Riding Hood?" asked Mister Muggs as Nancey and Nick nestled themselves in the magic automobile for their next adventure in Once-Upon-a-Time-Land.

"Shall we see the wolf?" asked Nick.

"I'm not so sure about that," answered Little Mister Muggs. "You see, the wood-cutters chased him so far and gave him such a beating that he may not have felt like coming back."

"Chug, chug, chug!" they went over seven counties and seven towns, and in the twinkling of seven eyes they came to the forest where Red Riding Hood had met the wolf.

And there stood a little house with a neat sign which said, "Granny's Cottage—Lift up the latch and walk in."

So they all walked in—and there stood the old wolf.

"Oh, my!" cried Nancey, rushing for the cupboard where Red Riding Hood's grandmother had hidden long ago when the wolf chased her out of bed.

"Come here, Nancey," said Little Mister Muggs. "Don't be afraid of this fellow. I never did believe that he meant to hurt Red Riding Hood or Granny either."

Suddenly two big tears fell out of the wolf's eyes. "Oh, no, sir! I wouldn't have hurt a hair of their heads. I've been away for fifteen years on the other side of the world, and I've just come back. I'll tell you the truth now. I'm not really a wolf at all, but an enchanted prince. A wicked fairy put me under a spell for fifteen years. The fifteen years are up and I'm waiting for the spell to be broken. This is my kingdom and I own this forest."

"Well, well!" declared Mister Muggs. "Who would have thought it! I shouldn't, for one."

"And I never forgot the sweet little girl I met in the woods picking flowers. Do you know where she lives?" asked the wolf.

"We are just on our way to her house now," said Mr. Muggs. "If you care to come you may follow us along the path."

Red Riding Hood, now grown up, was making food and looked out of the window and saw them.

"Look what's after you!" she cried, sticking her head out of the window. "It's a dreadful wolf!"

"Oh, please, please, I'm not dreadful!" said the wolf. "If you'll only let

HELD ANNUAL MAY PARTY AND DANCE

The seventh annual May party and dance, by the Shawnee Campers, was held last evening in Lincoln hall and was attended by several hundred couples. Dancing was enjoyed from 8:30 o'clock until midnight, with a short intermission at 10:30 o'clock when refreshments were served.

The officials of the party were as follows: Arthur Thomas, general manager; John Keegan, assistant general manager; Joseph Bourke, floor director; Walter Egan and John J. Bowers, aids.

TODAY IN WASHINGTON

Senate and house meet. President and cabinet hold regular session. Senate and house immigration bill conference meet. Senate Daugherty investigating committee is called. Senate agriculture committee continues the Muscle Shoals hearing. Senate committee investigating alleged Texas land frauds is called. House committee investigating the shipping board proceeds with its work. House insular affairs committee continues consideration of the Philippines bill. House rivers and harbors committee takes more evidence on the Chicago drainage canal proposal. District of Columbia supreme court hears arguments on Harry F. Sinclair's demurrer to the indictment charging him with contempt of the senate.

Board Will Order Hearing On Oakland's Sewer

After-drawn street cleaning equipment is idle. Mr. Daugherty said the motor sweepers can keep abreast of the work and the streets today are in such good condition he does not see the necessity of using horse-drawn equipment at this time.

Mr. Murphy called for a rough plan of progress on all construction work to be kept daily at the walls of the street department office and kept up to date. The board will examine this report before its meeting each Thursday.

At the close of the public hearings, at 5:30 o'clock, the board met in executive session in the street department office. The city council had graciously awaited for the use of its own chamber until the hearings were completed. The council then commenced its special meeting, during which its first order of business, setting their first meeting of civic procedure, remained to witness the session.

Repairs and replacements to the lines at the boulevard pumping station will be done by Scannell Bros. contractors, now replacing the broken water main and catch basins.

Mr. Murphy said while he does not wish to be understood as favoring further immediate expenditures on the job he wanted to know its status. He felt, he said, as a member of the board he should know its plans.

The proposal for a sewer in Main street was tabled pending information as to whether or not the street is a private way. At 10:15 the board adjourned until next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FAVORS COMPLETE MOTORIZATION OF FIRE DEPARTMENT

City Council Committee Approves Recommendations of
Fire Chief Saunders—Total Cost Would Approximate $50,000—Mayor Will Approve Loan

A recommendation for the complete motorization of the fire department was adopted by the public safety committee of the city council at a meeting last night called for the purpose of investigating the needs of the fire department. Fire Chief Edward P. Saunders and City Solicitor Patrick J. Reynolds were present and the former recommended the purchase of a motor aerial ladder truck, a city service truck similar to the one now located in Lawrence street, and one triple combination pumping engine. On motion of Councilor Arthur G. Gendron, the committee voted in favor of purchasing a second triple combination pump for the Pawtucketville district house and the chief included this in his recommendation. The total cost of the apparatus needed is slightly less than $50,000.

Solicitor Reynolds, speaking as the representative of Mayor Donovan, said that the mayor was ready at this time to approve any loan order which was for the motorization of the fire department. He suggested, after Chief Saunders' tentative recommendation was made, that the council add to the appropriation of the department $14,200 and then to bring in an order for a loan for the balance necessary. This action would be necessary, the chief being the department's appropriation up to the limit set by the state financial law.

A sub-committee was named to draw up an ordinance which will give the fire chief authority to investigate all buildings for fire hazards and have defective buildings razed. This ordinance was thought advisable as, in the opinion of the committee, the chief was held responsible for all fires and should have authority to go away with as many fire risks as possible.

The meeting in detail
The meeting was called to order shortly after 8 o'clock by Chairman James P. Hennessy. Present were Councilors David Jackson, Frederick A. Sadler, Daniel Moriarty, John J. McPadden, Arthur Gendron of the committee and Councilors Eugene A. Fitzgerald, President James J. Gallagher and Maurice A. Lambert, were also present. Chairman Hennessy called for an opinion from the committee and all were in favor of immediate action along any line which the chief recommended.

Councilor Moriarty asked the chief what apparatus would be necessary to completely motorize the department. The chief recommended the purchase of a second triple combination pumping engine for the Pawtucketville district house and the chief included this in his recommendation. The total cost of the apparatus needed is slightly less than $50,000.

TAX REDUCTION BILL ASKS U. S. FOR TEN AIRPLANES

Second Week of Consideration—Senate Tries to Speed Up Discussion

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Entering the second week of consideration of the tax reduction bill, the senate tried again today to speed up the discussion with spokesmen of both parties urging prompt action.

Democrats at a conference last night went on record favoring a speed-up program, while Chairman Swope of the finance committee, in charge of the bill for the majority, late yesterday threatened night sessions to expedite the disposal of the measure.

As a result of two conferences, the democrats were prepared today to make a practically united stand for the Simons income tax schedule and changes in the corporation and state taxes. The main contests will center on these provisions, although an extended fight for greater publicity of tax returns also has been indicated.

For the third day, debate moved on the treasury proposal to limit tax deductions on the basis of amounts of income received by taxpayers from tax-exempt securities.

The latest word from government officials was that the island was quiet everywhere, except around Cienfuegos and Trinidad on the south coast of Santa Clara province where, it was claimed, that not more than 50 to 60 men are in revolt. However, El Sol, a newspaper temporarily suppressed some weeks ago for saying a revolution was being started, declared that the veterans and patriots' association had ordered an uprising throughout the island.

It was believed to be in an effort to forestall such a movement that the government arrested five leaders here and several scores of others in Santa Clara.

Supl. Joseph H. Gormley and Chief Clerk William H. Gallagher of the city charities department attended the annual conference of the Massachusetts Association of Relief Officers, held yesterday in Fitchburg.

Insurance adjusters today met many policyholders affected by Sunday's disastrous fire and a number of settlements are said to have been made.

The Bay State mills of the American Woolen Co. are back on a four-day schedule. A few weeks ago the company cut operations at this plant from four to three days.

City Engineer Stephen Kearney will shortly present to the public service board a list of streets where marker signs are to be affixed or replaced.

Danger warnings of the reflector type, purchased last year by the city, are soon to be placed at several of the more dangerous turns and corners by direction of Police Supt. Atkinson.

Wesley M. Wilder was today awarded the contract for a carload of hay for the health department stables, at $25.30 a ton subject to inspection on delivery. Edward H. Foye and R. K. Dexter proposed to furnish the hay at $20 and were the only other bidders.

City Engineer Stephen Kearney will next week confer with Councilors MacPadden, Stearns and Lambert relative to the proposed new bridge across Beaver Brook at Conduit street.

City officials of Cambridge en route to Manchester, N. H., on an official mission stopped at city hall this morning to pay their respects to Mayor Donovan and spent several minutes chatting with his honor, his secretary, and City Solicitor Reynolds.

Twelve students of the public health school of the state department of health spent the day at the office of the local board of health, the routine duties of which were explained by Dr. Francis A. Finnegan.

PRES. ZAYAS SENDS URGENT REQUEST TO WASHINGTON FOR AID AGAINST REBELS

Government Has 500 Troops Massed Around Cienfuegos—Warships Nearby

HAVANA, May 2.—The government today had 500 troops around Cienfuegos, near the chief center of the anti-Zayas movement, its warships were patrolling the coasts, and newspaper reports declared that President Zayas had sent an urgent request to the United States government for ten airplanes to be used against the rebels.
